THREE HOMERS

CHICAGO, May 6 .- Lou Gehrig tied the modern record for home runs in a single game by getting the third circuit blow in the ninth inning of Saturday's clash between the Yankees and White Sox. The rookie southpaw, Dan Duncan, was in the box. He had previously reached Red Faber in the second and McKain in the seventh. Three drives gave Gehrig a total of six for the season. Babe Ruth hit his third of the season in the seventh.

ATHLETICS AT LEAGUE HEAD

Boston Still Impertinently Clinging to Top of National

NEW YORK, May 8.—The first week-end in intersectional campaigning left the Athletics at the head of the American league with Boston still impertinently clinging to the National top. The Mackmen regained the peak by defeating Gray and St. Louis. It was Gray's first deteat of the season.

The Yankee heavy artillery is again disturbing the American league. The champions have registered 39 hits in the last three games and won them all. Ruth added another homer yesterday.

Liska, for Washington, turned back the Indians with two hits yesterday, but saw his opponent win the game. He has now lost three straight, each by one run.
