VICTORIA, Jan. 3.-Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert, in a statement mae here yesterday indicated that he would demand. from the Tolmie government that full publicity be given to all orders-in-council. These are the orders passed by the provincial cabinet and signed by the lieutenant-governor. Once they are passed, Mr. Pattullo claims that they should be open to the public.

The Tolmie government acknowledged the right of the leader of the opposition to see the orders and accepted Former Premier MacLean as the leader. On his departure for Ottawa, Dr. MacLean designated Mr. Pattullo to exercise the right for him, and this, Mr. Pattullo says, will be

However, this does not satisfy Mr. Pattullo. He claims and will urge his claim on the floor of the legislature that every citizen has a right to know what orders are passed, and the members of the legislature have the right to examine them at any time during proper office hours.

Canada for First Time Exercises Her Right as Independent Nation Within Commonwealth of the British Empire

OTTAWA, Jan. 3.-The year 1929 opened here officially yesterday by a wholly new departure in statecraft on the part of Canada. A treaty was signed by Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, premier of Canada, on behalf of His Majesty King George. This is the first occasion the Canadian prime minister has signed a treaty as chief adviser to His Majesty in regard to Canadian affairs under the equal status provisions set forth at the last imperial conference. It marks the advent of Canada as an independent nation in the British Commonwealth, subject only to the King, but wholly independent of the British cabinet.

The treaty was one between United States and Canada enabling power plants at Niagara Falls to take more water out of Niagara River while, at the same time, protecting the scenic beauty of the falls. It was signed by Hon. William Phillips, United States minister plenipotentiary to Ottawa, as well as by the Canadian premier.

Ketchikan Commercial Club Again Endorses Scheme and Appoints Representative to Appear at Washington on Their Behalf

KETCHIKAN, Jan. 3.—Another effort is to be made by this city to capture the fresh halibut market from Prince Rupert. For several years the attack was led by Josiah Strong, who planned to build up this city as a fishing centre and have all halibut shipped to the eastern market, first packed in ice and boxed here. One of the schemes was to have a car-ferry operated between this port and Prince Rupert in order to avoid re-handling of the fish at Prince Rupert. Telling of the recent move the Ketchikan, Alaska, Chronicle, says:
