Man in the Moon

All the youngsters go back to school Monday except those who are too young or the kids who are too old.

Why pine for the good old days
When we sat for hours in school,
Watching the clock turn slowly
Learning by rote and by rule?

No, these are the real good days
When learning is made like play,
There are no times like these
No matter what mossbacks say.

If you would avoid the flu, keep your mouth shut.

Keep your mouth shut
Breathe through the nose
You'll always be healthy
As everyone knows.

Jake says it's great to get the correct time on the radio at night at nine o'clock. In that way he is able to get to bed on time even if his watch does get rather slow by morning.

There's one thing about the air routes they do not need paving and there's plenty of room to turn out when you meet someone going in the opposite direction.

What's the use of daylight saving in the summer if you can't use any of it in the winter?
