IRISH BOY BEATS WAY TO VICTORIA

Taken in Charge by Immigration Authorities and May be Deported.

Victoria, July 31.—Befriended by a party of returning Canadian soldiers with whom he became associated at Seaford military camp in England, James Simpson, a sixteen-year-old Irish lad, managed to make his way all the distance to Victoria only to be picked up by the immigration authorities here who are now considering his case. It is probable that he will be deported to the Old Country. Young Simpson spent the night at police headquarters.

A sturdy, attractive lad with the sunny disposition of the native of the Emerald Isle. Simpson proved a favorite with the men with whom he came to this part of the world. His association with the Canadians at Seaford Camp imbued him with a strong desire to come to this country. He traveled with a party of homeward-bound soldiers from the camp to Liverpool, and there the soldiers said good-bye to him. But the lad made up his mind to get to Canada. He stowed away on board the Aquitania, on which the party of Canadians returned to Canada. A day out from Liverpool the lad was discovered and was forced to work his passage in the stokehold. At Halifax he was due to be handed over to the immigration authorities, but he eluded them, doubtless his way being made easier for him by his soldier friends, who took him among them on the train and smuggled him across the continent until this coast was reached.

But the search for him had been prosecuted, and it was not long before his presence here was known to the authorities, and he was taken in charge.

FULL HOUSE GREETES EXCELLENT PROGRAM

Westholme Offering is Pictures and Vaudeville of High Class; Repeated Tonight.

A full house greeted the Komedy 3 vaudeville artists and the pictures at the Westholme last night and they were well pleased with the offering.

The big film showing Anita Stewart in "Mary Regan" was an excellent one. It showed up the dangers of the modern fashionable cabaret and also indicated how useless it is for a girl to marry a man for the purpose of reforming him. It was an excellent drama.

Nellie Toomey, comedienne; Harry Pashley, comedian archibald, and Jim Toomey, expert dancer, were all well received and their performances were very good in their particular lines.

Will Edmunds as a variety instrumentalist was the favorite of the evening. He played a number of instruments and it is difficult to say which was the most pleasing. Mr. Edmunds should be heard oftener. His music is first rate.

The program will be repeated tonight.

AMAZING STORY AT EMPRESS THEATRE

"The Amazing Wife" is an amazing picture and it was much appreciated by the large number who attended the Empress Theatre last night. The popular picture house usually gets a good crowd because of its ability to deliver the goods.

In the story Lieut. John Ashton, thought to have been killed at the front, returns to his home to find his widow there whom he had never married. The woman's real husband, whose name was also John Ashton, was killed in a drunken brawl on the wedding night, and she had pretended to be the widow of the other man, the notice of whose death she had read in the papers.

The sequel is all right.

Among those leaving for the islands yesterday by the Prince Albert were Mrs. Carroll and daughter who will holiday for about a month at Port Clements.

Synopsis of ## Land Act Amendments

Minimum price of first-class land reduced to $5 an acre; second-class to $2.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation not less than 5 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health, or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $100 per acre, and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements of $10.00 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years are required.

Pre-emptor holding Crown grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

Mill, factory or industrial sites on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased; conditions include payment of stumpage.

Natural hay meadows inaccessible by existing roads may be purchased conditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchase price, is made.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

No fees relating to pre-emptions are due or payable by soldiers on pre-emptions recorded after June 26, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years.

Provision for return of moneys accrued, due and been paid since August 4, 1914, on account of payments, fees or taxes on soldiers' pre-emptions.

Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or dependents, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from enlistment to March 21, 1920.

SUB-PURCHASERS OF CROWN LANDS.

Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfillment of conditions of purchase, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchasers do not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1920.

GRAZING.

Grazing Act, 1919, for systematic development of livestock industry provides for grazing districts and administration under Commissioner. Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers ranged; priority for established owners. Stock-owners may form Associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.
