

Man in the Moon

If you want to lose your money on stocks buy on margins and don't be afraid to extend yourself. Especially if you get a confidential tip like the speaker of the Manitoba House got.

I bought myself some mining shares.
(I thing this gambling rot),
For the stock went down soon as I bought,
And I lost the blooming lot.

Jake says he never buys unless he is sure the stock will go up. That's right Jake. You'll win if you do that.

Sing a song of six bits
Pocket full of cash;
Four and twenty suckers
All of whom were rash.

But when they placed their money safe
The stocks began to fall.
Wasn't that a silly trick
To go and lose their all?

Jake says if all those who eat at boarding houses were placed side by side they would reach.

The theatrical critic has been on a rampage since yesterday. It seems that the wrong words got into his report and made him look foolish. He says he'll read his own proofs next time. If this is not effective he will take a correspondence course and do his own linotyping.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 27, 1919

The fishing boat Saturn, Capt. Porter, which arrived in port last night, was battered for four hours in a furious storm and finally went ashore on Dundas Island, being released by the rising tide. The vessel will be taken on the dry dock for repairs.

The Prince Rupert Board of Trade, at a meeting yesterday afternoon with President M. P. McCaffery in the chair, decided to send a delegate to a mining convention in Vancouver. It is likely that A. C. Garde will be the delegates, the choice of whom has been left to the mining committee.

A burglar entered Bryant & Greer's store last night and took $3., all the money which had been left in the safe which was open.
