Suffered From Indigestion Was Afraid To Eat

Mrs. E. Proulx, 10548-96th St., Edmonton, Alta., writes:—"I suffered from indigestion and was afraid to eat I suffered so after. A friend told me how she used to suffer with the same thing and how had relieved her. I took two bottles and I will never regret the day I did as I am happy to say I can now eat anything and not be bothered with indigestion after."

District News

SMITHERS

Smithers had welcome rains last week which came as a great relief to the farmers of the whole district.

Government Agent S. H. Hoskins and sons, Phillip and Oswald, left last Thursday by motor for Vancouver. Phillip is returning to his duties in the Royal Bank at Victoria after spending his vacation here.

The Bulkley River is rapidly rising and should soon reach the extreme high mark. With light rains and warm weather, snow is rapidly leaving the hills and all the creeks are in a flooded state.

Jack Portsmouth, after an absence of several years, has returned here to resume his former duties as telegraph operator in the local railway station.

T. R. Tomlinson of Cedarvale arrived here last week, accompanied by Mrs. Tomlinson and family, and bought a new car in which he started for a motor trip to Vancouver by easy stages.

Good results are being obtained from the Indian fish traps recently placed at the outlet of Lake Kathlyn and there have been several large catches of squaw fish and suckers which prey on the trout.

The provincial government is offering substantial prizes for collections of weeds entered by boys and girls at the local fall fair.

VANDERHOOF

J. H. F. Lacey of the Indian Department is spending two weeks in the southeast section of the Stuart Lake agency on departmental business.

Mrs Lewis Rawson has returned to her home at Dewey after visiting with friends in Vanderhoof.

The whole company of the Vanderhoof Choral Society journeyed to Burns Lake to give a recital there last Saturday night.

J. G. Whiteacre has been paying his annual visit to his Mandalay farm in the Stuart River district.

George Little of Terrace has been spending several days in town on business, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews while here.

Rev. L. J. Hales of Smithers visited the Vanderhoof parish during the early part of this week.

With recent rains, crops throughout the district are now coming along splendidly and a good harvest is in prospect.

Miss H. Baynes and staff of three were here recently en route to Stuart Lake where they will open up Douglas Lodge for the summer.

Following a tour of inspection of the municipality, the village commissioners instructed a number of citizens to clean up their premises in compliance with the bylaw covering that purpose.

J. G. Whiteacre, owner of the Mandalay farm, the model farm of the central interior, is letting contracts for the erection of a two storey ten room house on the farm.

W. E. Winslow of the British Columbia Loggers' Mission gave an address in the United Church here on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ryall have been spending a week or so at Fort St. James looking after the business interests at Stuart Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Lamont, early settlers of this district, are now located in Toronto after having spent several years in Florida.

Extensive improvements have been made to the local cemetery grounds by the board of village commissioners.

The central interior including Vanderhoof and Fort St. James has been generously featured in "The Call of British Columbia," a publication of the British Columbia Advertisers Ltd.

Miss Marjorie Paterson returned home last week after taking a business course in Vancouver.
