HERE IS YOUR RECIPE Mrs. FORBES

Here is the way Pacific Milk whips best:
Put a small tin in water and heat to the boiling point. Then put on ice and chill thoroughly.
Have a bowl on the ice getting cold. When the tin is chilled open it and pour milk into the cold bowl, placed in another bowl of cracked ice.
Beat in the ordinary way and in less than five minutes you'll have delicious whipped cream.
If it is not too much trouble we would be glad to know how you like it. We will furnish any other recipes upon request.

BABY MARIE OSBORNE IN "WINNING GRANDMA"

Wonderful Infant Actress to Be at the Westholme Tonight; Nature Pictures.

There are some more of the popular nature pictures to be seen tonight at the Westholme Theatre. They are the real thing and for those who are fond of outdoor life prove the most acceptable offerings of the screen.

The big play stars Baby Marie Osborne in "Winning Grandma," the child actress who has insinuated herself into so many hearts is well known in a dozen famous films. The child has a unique personality and talent. She first won fame in "Little Mary Sunshine" and has kept to the fore as a child actress.

Sport

British yachtsmen have passed a resolution refusing to race against German yachtsmen for ten years. That will hurt, for Hun yachtsmen were rapidly coming to the front. They will have no real international competition because they have beaten all except the British.

There was a fatal termination to the lacrosse game between the National and Cornwall at the Nationals' grounds when "Happy" L'Heureux died of heart failure at the end of the second quarter. He did not complain of any illness until after the finish of the opening quarter, when he asked to have a substitute go in and replace him while he rested. Medical attention was called and the doctors attended him until he died. The doctors gave as the cause of his death heart failure. L'Heureux will be remembered as having come west with the Frenchmen in quest of the Minto Cup.

With entries from all Pacific coast cities, the twenty-ninth annual northwest tennis tournament will open on August 4 on the courts of the Tacoma Lawn Tennis Club. While the tournament is supposed to be for the northwest players, players from any part of the world are eligible to enter.

At the practise game of football on Wednesday evening the players had lots of running around. The number on each side was below what is required to play the game so that the men had a great deal more ground to cover. By the time the game was over, all were very tired and it afforded great amusement to the spectators to see how easily the players fell over when they clashed.

Several fishing parties have been organized for the past few weeks to go up McNicholl Creek. The salmon are running there and the trout are biting fine. It makes a nice jaunt to hike up the Georgetown trail one afternoon, camping there all night and returning on the following day, fishing all the way down.

Next year will see a girls' Oxford and Cambridge boat race as well as the annual male affair, if Newnham College fans can manage it.

All branches of sport are booming in the old country, but it will take some time for the clubs to get back their former smoothly-running organizations. Cricket is just as universal as ever, but the "old gang" in golf seems to be passed away. The younger generation does not seem to be taking hold of the latter. The newspapers are taking an active interest in stimulating lawn tennis. The recent regatta at Hecley seems to confirm the fact that this fixture is going to have a long lease of life, in spite of the fact that the public is not taking a very great interest and houseboats are conspicuous by their absence. Nothing, however, holds the interest of the people like horse racing. All the race-meets are a success although some of the entries would have made racegoers before the war shed bitter tears over the quality of the horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Yager and son left for Vancouver on the Grand Trunk steamer last evening on their way to eastern Canada. Mr. Yager has been called home on account of the illness of his father.
