Girls Held Tea On Saturday at Mrs. C. C. Mills

The girls' branch of the Women's Auxiliary to St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral held a successful Hallowe'en tea and sale at the home of Mrs. C C. Mills on Saturday afternoon, the rooms being suitably decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Mills and Mrs. A. L. Holtby received the guests, while Misses Eleanor Moxley, Helen Stamp-Vincent, Annie Gilker and Violet Stamp-Vincent acted as serviteurs. A satisfactory sum was realized.

Reformation Services Held

Reformation services were held last evening at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Rev. John Hanson officiating, and there was a large congregation. Mr. Hanson spoke, using the text "The just shall live faith." He told how on October 31 1517, Martin Luther nailed up the 95 theses on the church door Wittenberg, Germany, and this as the reformation. Luther asked for a fair discussion. Today, Mr. Hanson said, there are 83,000,000 Lutherans in the world and 193,-000,000 Protestants

Miss Olofson played the piano, a duet was given by Rev. John and Mrs. Hanson and Luther's hymn "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" was
