He followed that work for many years and was formerly on the lighthouse tender Newington, having to relinquish his duties there on account of ill-health. During the past winter he was employed on car barge construction at the local drydock and more recently had worked as a longshoreman.

Deceased is survived by a widow and five small children. His widow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jappy, 661 Fifth Avenue East. The family will have general sympathy in its bereave-
