Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

April 13, 1919

Two girl attendants in a soft drink bar are appearing before Magistrate McMullin in city police court charged with robbing a fisherman of $200.

Word was received in the city yesterday that Police Magistrate Alfred Carss is in a serious condition at Rochester Minn, where he went for treatment at the Mayo Clinic. It is not believed that he can recover.

Large catches of halibut and salmon are arriving here and the Fish Exchange is sitting on Sundays as well as all other days of 3rd Ave. & 6th St. the week.
