

MAN TO MAN IT's best by Long Odds"

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

Harvey Bowden, son of the su- Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.L.A. for perintendent of the Baxter Pole Skeena, arrived in the city from Co.'s operations at Port Clements, Hazelton on this afternoon's train was an arrival in the city on the and will sail tonight on the Prince Prince Charles this morning from Rupert for a trip to Vancouver the islands. and Victoria.

SHADOW"

INSTALMENT XXXXIII

The End of Dr. Moffett

of Ainsworth and why he threaten- Bank Street. ed to murder Miss Castle. Ask him | "You had sent her word you wishwhy he murdered his wife. Ask him ed to see her there, but it was Axelwhy he faked the dictaphone evi- son who met her when she arrived dence. Ask him-but you could fire at the house, and it was he who questions at him the rest of the committed the actual murder." night, and still you wouldn't cover the ground.

"And I may not care to answer anything about it." all those questions," observed Moffett with a sneer.

"That's so," said Dale thoughtful. ly. For a moment he gazed at Axel son's gray, twitching face. Then he took Summers aside and talked t him earnestly in an undertone. At the end of 10 minutes the captain appeared less incredulous. He stepped up to Axelson and released his led him from the room. Moffett rigmarole, part truth and part ficwatched their departure with a tion. And I fell for it!" dark and uneasy glance. Dale turned to the girl and engaged her in looked sheepishly at Dale. light conversation. An hour passed. "I should have tumbled," he adand then Summers and the old man mitted. "It was a little too pat, you returned.

pair of steel links over the prison- |sing wife and how you kept the old | was anticipated these would soon er's wrists, "I arrest you for the home ready for her return, and the be overcome. murder of your wife."

"You instigated the murder," said comfortably. "He fooled us all."

Phone, Day or Vight

P. O. Box 156

7 came back last June and became your accomplice. You did not live together, and she used the name of Conway. You thought you could work better if you were not looked upon as man and wife.

"Soon you began to suspect your! wife was double crossing you. You! were afraid of her and decided she Dale picked up the mask he had had to be disposed of. Axelson was torn from Ferryman's face nearly to do the work and a certain night three hours before. "You might be- was set for the deed. Your wife had gin by asking him why he uses this been out to a gay party that nightmask. Then ask him where he got that's why she wore all that finery. these pearls. Ask him why he tried She did not go to her own apartto kill a young fellow by the name ment after the party, but to 262

"Of course he did!" Ferryman de-

"You did and I can prove it. The murder was easy, but it wasn't so easy to dispose of the body. That's a ticklish thing to do in a big city. been committed by an outsider. Axelson was to 'find' the body when "Come with me," he directed And to make everything look enough, were the worst offenders. straight and aboveboard you came He took the old man's arm and to my office and gave me a long

Summers grunted disgustedly and news of the murder coming in just capable of containing all the pu-and the dictation machine. And the green light. Where is it, Axelson?" the inevitable, trudged across the room and opened a little niche in Owing to the uneven numbers the wall. They heard a click, and in the classes, there were some again the magic green light flooded difficulties in grading. Miss Merthe room, obscuring the candles on cer. principal of Booth School, rethe mantel and throwing a softening shimmer over tense faces.

with a special lens Ferryman had had found the school in at the made for him," Axelson explained had proven very encouraging. in a husky voice.

"Turn it off," Summers grumbled uneasily, with a hard look at Ferry-Street School, "Ferryman has several of those She informed the board higumbobs, hasn't he?" Dale sud- Shiel, Mr. O'Neill and her thigumbobs, hasn't he?" Dale suddenly inquired.

The old man nodded dully. "Two. summer school. One in town and one here. Then there are several smaller one that you can carry around in your poc-

"Like a flashlight?" Dale asked, his thoughts going back to the night when he had encountered an morning to be on time. intruder in his apartment.

d, and then he asked abruptly: day, Sept. 13. Dancing from 9 till 2, Smaile's Orchestra. (212) lasses sometimes, doesn't he?"

less you looked at them carefully, from Anyox and Stewart and will An ordinary bright light hurts his sail at 10 p.m. for Ocean Falls, Powell River and Vancouver.

To Be Continued Tomorrow

these days?

What we request is that cularize here. you in selecting.

Principals Made Reports to Board at Monthly Meeting Last Night school board at its meeting last night by the various principals.

The attendance per school is as

Borden

Miss E. A. Mercer, principal of Both Memorial School, stated clared choking y. "I didn't know beginning of the term last year. The attendance at the other schools is reported, however, to be slightly higher than last year.

D. H. Hartness, principal of the high school, complained You hadn't given that angle much fact that a number of pupils were thought beforehand. After talking anywhere from a few days to a it over with Axelson you decided to few weeks late in coming to make it appear that the murder had school after the opening of the the year, particularly the more he made his rounds next morning. backward pupils, who peculiarly crowded and where there was a the senior matriculation class

Mr. Hartness referred to plans that were being laid sitting there in my office and hand- few minor difficulties at the com-"Ferryman," he said, slipping a ing me a sob story about your mis- mencement of the term but it

The man's face changed horribly, then. Well, you're a great actor, pils was being felt in the high He sent Axelson a deadly glance. Ferryman-I've got to hand it to school. The chemical laboratory "He's squealed—the fool!" he you. You fooled me good and hard." was in a deplorable state with snarled. "He is the murderer, not I." | "Console yourself," said Dale much equipment and materials

Sports such as football, soft-Summers quietly. "It was true as Summers glared at the cause of ball, basketball, etc. were being you told me, that your wife left you his humiliation. "I know you tried organized in the high school but a number of years ago. But she to frame Mr. Dale with the pearls the Cadet Corps did not seem to be popular, only 29 being enrolled. Mr. Hartness stated. It was hoped later to give some attention The old man, glumly resigned to to the social side of school life.

> Booth School ported. Classes were averaging from 58 to 63 pupils. Miss Mercer said she was more than pleased "It's a kind of magic lantern with the splendid condition she commencement of the term. This

> Borden School Miss Mills, principal of Borden The green light faded out, sur- as a result of repairs that had

Local Items

This afternoon's train, due from the east at 3:30, was reported this

"Yes, something like that."

Big Elks' Whoopee Dance in Moose Hall tomorrow night, Fri-

"Yes," said Axelson, "but you Capt. D. Donald, is scheduled to wouldn't notice the green stain un- return at 8 o'clock this evening

> R. F. McNaughton and W. H. Tobey returned to the city on the Prince Charles this morning after having made the round trip to Stewart, Anyox and Massett In-

Chilliwack, will you please let us talk for construction work there. The RINGS with you some of vessel will return to this side of the harbor this afternoon and proceed this evening to Alice Arm We don't mean in an ad. where she will discharge a cargo of coal.

you step into the store and R. G. Emmerson, operator of the Dead Tree Point wireless staask to see our Ladies' rings. tion, Queen Charlotte Islands, and Don't expect us to parti- Mrs. Emmerson arrived in the morning and will sail this evening Always glad to answer on the Prince Rupert to spend a month's holiday in Vancouver. your questions and assist During Mr. Emmerson's absence. R. Hadley from Gonzales Hill station. Victoria, is in charge at Dead Tree.

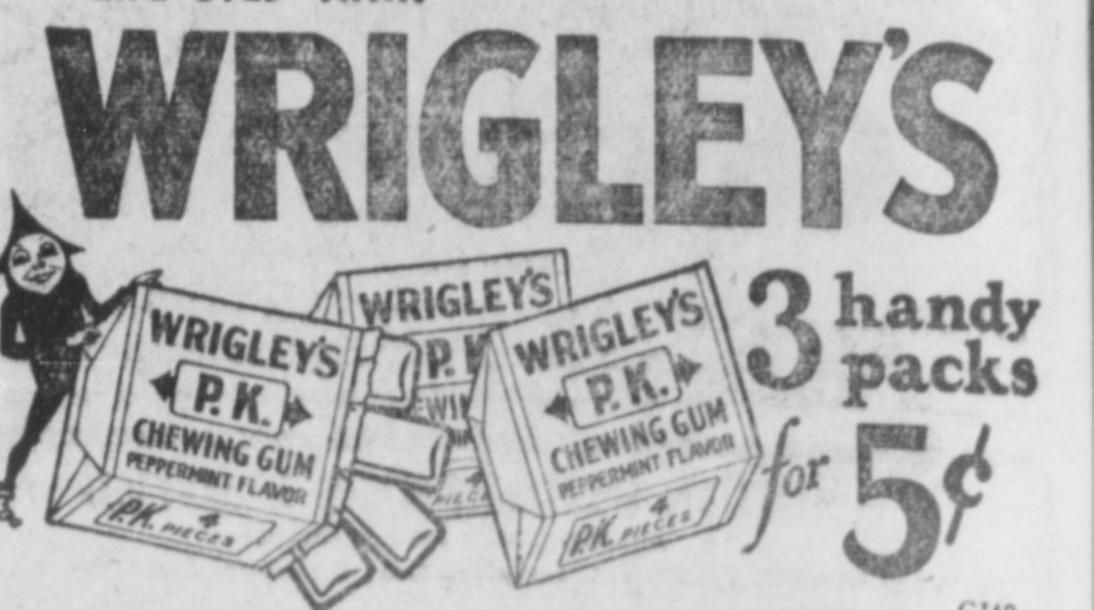

> The regular monthly meeting of he school board was held last night in the city council chamber. Chairman Thomas McMeekin presided and Trustees Mrs. T. M. Spencer, J. H. Thompson. Earl Barrie and William Gilchrist were all present as well as D. H. Hartness, high school principal, Miss E. A. Mercer, principal of Booth Memorial School; Miss S. A. Mills. Borden Street School; Miss Olive McArthur, Seal Cove School, and Miss Jessie Moffatt, Westview School

Your Kids Need Suga

It supplies body fuel for the energy that keeps them going and growing. No need to stuff or get fat and lazy.

Use WRIGLEY'S chewing sweets for sugar and flavor, and see how ruddily the boys and girls respond.

It's the new science of healthbuilding. Try WRIGLEY'S yourself and stay thin.

Time Brings Changes

Buy Marguerites in the bandy pocket packs of 5 cigars MARGUERITE

Foil-wrapped—But still 10c

FINEST LONDON DRY 6-19

ESTABLISHED BY

JOSEPH & JOHN VICKERS & CO., Lid. LONDON 1750 ENGLAND

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

If you lose anything, try a classified ad.

ONFIDENCE

DEAL driving comfort is not I measured alone by depth of upholstery...Rather it is found in the peace of mind you have when you can trust your tires. ... Then indeed are all roads good roads to the journey's end. SILVERTOWNS are built to give that feeling ... Very sturdy very strong & always absolutely dependable. Tet they cost no more.

De Luxe A CHOICE OF THREE TYPES IN THIS WORLD-FAMOUS TIRE