GERALDINE FARRAR AT THE WESTHOLME

Popular Drama in Which Monte Carlo Gambling is Featured

The romantic and dramatic atmosphere of Monte Carlo supplies the environment of Geraldine Farrar's first Goldwyn Picture, the "Turn of the Wheel," which is to be at the Westholme tonight. The only operatic star who has brought her high estate to the world of motion pictures and held it is provided by Goldwyn—with a powerful drama.

Geraldine Farrar is Rosalie Dean, an American, who sees at the great gambling tables a young man feverishly watching the turn of the wheel. She cannot tell why she is attracted to him more than any man she has ever seen, but it explains why her sympathy goes out to Maxfield Grey when he sees his stakes swept away. Rosalie halts his hand when he is on the brink of suicide and her humane act brings the young man back to himself. The story is a tense drama of the popular type.

What Eye Glasses Are For.

GLASSES have many uses, but only one purpose—the restoration of the sight to a natural condition.

YOU were intended to see well and easily. If you do not—then you should make haste to discover the trouble and apply a remedy.

THE want of a pair of suitable glasses may be all that prevents you having visual perfection, health and comfort.

LET us examine your eyes and let you know whether or not this is so.
