

Man in the Moon

Now Prince Rupert people Have a slight foretaste Of what it feels like where they'll go If they their talents waste.

And yet folks it was away less than 90 in the shade yesterday. How would it be to try 111?

Jake says it would be nice to live another fifty years to see what comes of the Terrace highway project.

Since Prince Rupert has every other organization they can think of, it has been suggested that there be a Prince Rupert Husband's Association formed, the members of which will dine together on the evening's when their wives are out at afternoon teas.

Some people want to tax the big chap who has most of the money but he is like a cow. The more milk he gives the more sustenance he must consume to produce it.

Afternoon bridge is described as a method invented by the Fisheries Association for training husbands to eat sardines.

The stock exchange is all right. It provides a means of respectable gambling for those who don't care about night clubs and can't afford to go to Tia Juana.
