Man in the Moon

If I were an onion I'd take listerine.

Good spelling is a sign of superficial education; good thinking makes the real man.

A very great man may write so badly that no one can read what he writes, yet he may be none the less great for that. Possibly it is a good thing that nobody can read his writings.

Several years before the Christian era there was a millionaire sentenced to hard labor for a crime. It has not happened since.

Women are said to be curious about what men talk about when they are together. Eve too, was curious.

When men meet men
What do they say?
Do they talk of topics
Grave or gay?
Do they ask each other
About the weather
Or learnedly talk
Of the outer ether?
I'd like to tell you
Ladies, dear,
But you'd scarcely like
Their talk to hear.

Another topic on which information is sometimes sought is whether a man is better, married or single. Those in favor say, "Aye."

When a man is married,
Alas, by heck,
He carries a millstone
Round his neck!
So say the pessimist
Women haters—
Men who are only
Second raters.
But those who know
Such matters declare
That one benedict
Is good as a pair
Of those who the wedded
Life berate
And pretend that they
All women hate.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 9, 1919

The halibut fishing boat Winge is in port after an adventurous trip to the fishing grounds. Dories of the vessel, while fishing, were caught in a howling gale and it was feared that all the men on board might be lost. After considerable hardship, however, all finally got safe back on board.

A burglar tried to force entry into the safe in Lipsett-Cunningham's store last night. The combination was taken off the inner vault but no entry was effected.

A branch of La Cercle Francaise has been organized in Prince Rupert. Mrs. Misak Aivazoff is president and Miss Myrtle McLenaghan, secretary.

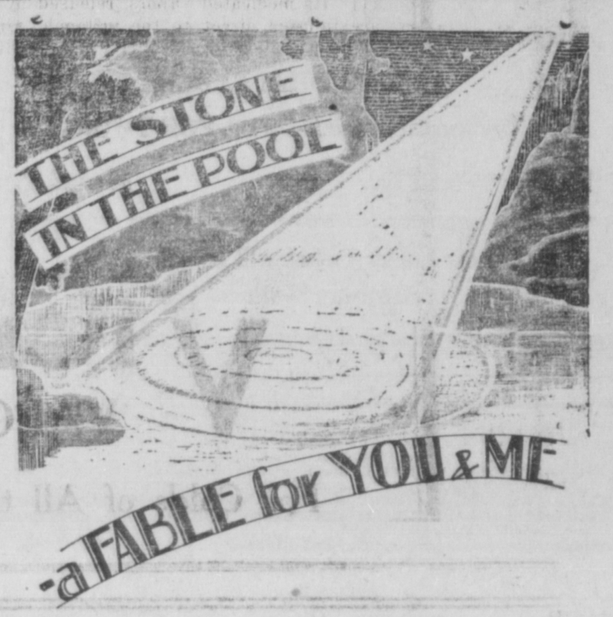
EMBARRASSING MOMENTS



THERE'S A SPLASH . . . the placid waters of the crystal pool take life as the pebble disappears. First a circle, then two, then six, then twelve, as if by magic the ripples race over the surface of the pool to its furthermost edges.

The stone that stirred the pool to life was one of your dollar bills, the pool is British Columbia . . . B.C. with its industries and natural resources, you, me, and everyone. The ripples are beneficial disturbances set up by your dollar . . . all the elements of B.C. industry responding to replace that commodity purchased by your dollar.

What is the moral of the stone in the pool?

Every dollar you spend for B.C. products helps sustain B.C. labour and all its dependent sources of production and distribution. Your own prosperity is dependent on your purchasing interest in those articles manufactured for you by your fellow men and women. Every man employed earns wages, spends wages, and keeps others employed. Demand the B.C. product! It is an expression of faith in your local industries and pride in the products of your Homeland.
