Warning To Native Boys

Great Spirit Sent Stream of Lava On Banks of Naas River to Punish Them

About two hundred years ago some Indian boys were spearing River with a native bone spear the salmon, cut off its fins and watching the agony of the fish One of the medicine men of the tribe reproved the lads and told them their cruel act would surely the great spirit. Very soon a volcano near the river became active and the lava rolled down over the country, covering a very large area, and today this story is told by the natives to warn the children against being cruel and to make them conserve call down on them the wrath of the fish on which they live. That is the story somewhat as it was told by Rev. W. E. Collison at the dinner given Saturday night MOOSE SHOW to W. A. Found, deputy minister of MOOSE SHOW fisheries. He also told the gathering that the Indians were always conservationists. They also objected to taking away the entrails of the fish after it was caught but these were always returned to the river.

Mackenzie King During Recent Visit Pleased With Buchan Version

VANCOUVER, Dec. 14.—When Premier Mackenzie King was in Vancouver a few weeks ago he heard members of the Board of Trade sing "O Canada," using words that appealed so much to him that he wrote to the secretary of the club

"In my, tours across Canada," wrote the premier, "I have heard !! many versions of 'O Canada,' and I know of none which sounded so

This unofficial approval from Canada's first citizen, voluntarily Price, 35c. a bottle; large family given, has imparted strong impetus to the efforts of the Vancouver Canadian Club and other interests here to make the Buchan version of the national anthem recognized throughout the Dominion.

The need for a more dignified and artistic national song was em phasized at the Quebec Tercentenary in 1908, a prime mover in which was the late Brig.-Gen. Lawrence Buchan. General Buchan felt that the stirring music of Lavallee was NICITURE being neglected for want of words that would gain public favor. At that time his brother, Ewing Buchan, was in Vancouver. The gen-"Hello Hawaii" the Moose big eral knew that Ewing had a flare musical spectacle will open a three for poetry and sent the music to day engagement at the Moose Hall him. As expected, Ewing Buchan tomorrow night. halibut in one day back in 1917 but today it would take a week or more to get that much fish. Tha was the statement made by Morrison agent of the halibut fishermen, at a dinner given to W. A. Found, deputy minister of fisheries, at the Commodore Cafe Saturday night.

Mr. Morrison urged the closing of the banks which were producing only chicken halibut. He said the amount of waste from fishing there was equal to the product. The Massett and Cape Addington Timber Islands grounds he thought should be closed to fishing for a term of years, perhaps permanently.
