Don't Pity Poor Young Men Pity Poor Old Men

GIVEN health and strength young people who are poor should not be an object of pity. Rather should one strive to arouse ambition in them. It is the poor old folks that require help.

You know of poor old mothers who are shifted around amongst sons and daughters for three or four months at a time, because they have no financial means.

Well, then, do you yourself want to be in this position some day? Do you want your wife to suffer? Not if you can help it! Then, provide now for an income for either or both of you while your earning powers permit it.

A reasonable premium will enable you to buy substantial protection in a Confederation Life Policy. Write now for pamphlet entitled "No Matter What Happens" which tells how this may be done. Address:

Mrs. Andrew Grant and children have left for Vancouver where they will spend the next two or three months visiting with relatives.

J. E. Archer, manager of First National Pictures, Vancouver, is a visitor in the city on business, having arrived last evening on the Catala from the south.

Ewart Lyne will give an organ recital at St. Andrew's Cathedral on Sunday next, October 13 at 9 p.m. This will be the last opportunity of hearing Mr. Lyne on the organ, as he is leaving here very soon. A very fine program is arranged and the full Cathedral Choir will assist. Do not miss this treat.

Having completed her calls in the Skeena River, Union steamer Cardena, Capt. A. Johnstone, arrived in port at 4:45 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 8 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The vessel had quite a large list of Skeena River cannery workers going south.
