CRISIS IS PAST

The crisis in the life of the British Labor Government is past. They have been sustained on the second reading below zero here during the past fans was in attendance because is leading with six wins and two of their Coal Mines Bill, but it was so close a vote that week, the lowest reading having of the inclement weather. R. B. losses. Pirates are second with six the fate of the Government was trembling in the balance. It seems as if the intent was to show the Labor Government that they could go so far and no farther.

It seems as if some of those who could not support the eral weeks visiting with friends ing and will meet again to decide bill, but who did not wish to see the Government defeated don Kirkpatrick, who has been the season. just now, must have absented themselves from the House, else with only two Liberals voting with Labor the result will leave on Sunday for his home would have been different.

BATTLE OF WHEAT

The great battle of wheat is still going on. Some- here at the end of the week to times the price goes up and sometimes down, but there spend the Christmas and New has so far been no real break which would indicate that his parents. Year holiday season visiting with either side had won. As the days pass the situation becomes tense, but there is still time enough for the Pool and other holders of grain to score a win. It seems as if no new wheat can come on the market except that from Australia until early next fall and in the meantime available stocks are being used up and more and more people will be looking to Canada for their supply. In spite of veloped by its owners, David Elks Matheson. this it looks to us as if the big holders would begin to have The latest discovery is a parallel sleepless nights pretty soon. A lamentable feature of the mining report is the drop of a million dollars in the production of coal. This is having a bad effect on Vancouver Island, where the G. W. Smith, Mrs. Edgar Woodamount of coal produced has fallen off considerably.

An important feature is that mines of northern and carrying out Christmas Cheer central British Columbia promise to increase their output in the near future. From all the work done throughout the district some real mines are bound to result, else the big companies which are developing them do not know their business.

WIERIAN CHURC A BATTULEO BAUGHS

The despatch received yesterday says that when T. D. liam Hanna and G. R. Holbrook. Bradford 0, Wolverhampton Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert, was asked if he had been offered a federal cabinet position, he laughed.

On With the Dance the Latest Cattish Crawl

(Vancouver Star) On with the dance, let joy be unconfined! Certainly something is needed to unconfine the joy of the dance, for anything more lugubrious than the gyrations of the present generation would be hard to find.

However, relief is at hand, One of the ladies of the chorus in a Broadway show has invented the "Cat Burglar Crawl," which is said to be "bright, vigorous and full of
