EXCEPTIONAL PROGRAM AT THE CAPITOL

Two Vaudeville Acts Together With Denny's "Red Hot Speed" Combine to Make Ideal Entertainment

Last night's show at the Capitol provided laughs aplenty for a big mid-week audience. Reginald Denny's "Red Hot Speed" is an hilarious comedy full of motor trouble, heart trouble and just plain trouble. The sub-titles alone are a riot and are probably the cleverest yet shown on the Capitol screen.

Ray Southard, "The Wandering Minstrel" wandered back to Army Days with his original patter and incidentally turned in a couple of good song numbers, "Ida, Your just as sweet as Apple Cider" and "Lam', Lam', Lam.."

"Charleston" Wright billed as "The dark Cloud of Joy" went over big with his "Red Hot Speed" step-dancing and was brought back again and again. 'Charleston" has been booked for a whole week and promises to be a big favorite with Capitol patrons.

The same big show will be repeated tonight.
