Ste. Petronille

Jack Strathdee, the very able winter sports director at the Chalet Frontenac, his friends will be pleased to learn, is losing weight. Jack runs a summer camp at French River in the fishing season and he took his present job for the reason that he wanted to rest and draw a salary at the same time. When he has time to reflect, and this is seldom, he longs for the easy job of operating a camp and handling a crowd of Indian guides. He finds no rest, for during every daylight hour there is something doing on the ski-hill, on the rink, on the slide—and a hundred people to provide with sports equipment and direction. But he keeps fit as they all do. The air is bracing and invigorating and there is lots of fun.

In the group above one sees the director assisting Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Willington who have just come down the slide for the third time. The other group perhaps explains why he finds so much pleasure in his work and why he has taken up skiing again. There is also a picture of his rink which shows how the slide in the background drops down steeply from the citadel.

But take the other picture. This will show you Jack Strathdee's most recent discovery. Beyond the dogs and the terrace is a field of free ice. Beyond that the Isle of Orleans is a shadowy form. Now to the left of the island, just above the lamp standard, great slabs and chunks of crystal and opaque ice hurled themselves in a mass, cast reefs of glistening pinnacles to the sky in one glorious chaos and screeching, groaningly settled down. Then the mayor of St. Gregoire and the mayor of Ste. Petronille set out, each armed with a small spruce cutting. They met somewhere in the centre of the river, solemnly shook hands, and the ice bridge was declared open. It was after that that the sports director drove over and discovered Ste. Petronille with its ski slopes and toboggan and snowshoe prospects, and also the "Catalogue". The "Catalogue" has a rubble-stone fire place of catalogue about the floor and as window drapes, the oddest old furniture and quaint bed-rooms and, above all a splendid cuisine. It is less than one hour from Quebec and is hailed as a great discovery.

Canadiens of Montreal Defeat

New York Americans and Take Lead in National Hockey League

TORONTO, Jan. 30. — The New York Americans were out of first place in the international section of the National Hockey League today for the first time since December 13. The Canadiens defeated them last night and went one point in the lead.

Since December 22 the Frenchmen have lost only one game in 15. The Canadiens still had enough speed to outskate the Americans and stop every attack after Joliat put them ahead with flashy individual play in the first period.

Boston cut the N. Y. Rangers' lead to two points by defeating Chicago.

With only three minutes to go Ottawa held a two-nil lead over Toronto. Toronto shot in two successive goals to even the game, but Ottawa regained their margin in overtime. There were 27 penalties.

The following were the scores: Toronto 2, Ottawa 4. Canadiens 1, N. Y. Americans 0. Chicago 1, Boston 4.

PORTLAND TIED WITH VICTORIA HOCKEY GAME

VICTORIA, Jan. 30.—Portland tied up the score with the Victoria Cubs in a coast hockey fixture here last night just before the close of the third period and the contest went over and ended in a deadlock of two goals each. The Cubs tallied almost immediately after the game opened. The Bucks evened up in the second and the Cubs a few minutes later went into the lead again. In the third period the visitors evened up. The Cubs had the edge on the play.

SKATING HERE VERY POPULAR

Large Parties Visited Island Lake Last Night; Morse Creek Well Patronized

The lake near the end of the Kaien Island highway proved a popular rendezvous for local skaters last night. There were well over 100 on the ice there, which was in splendid shape. Two of the larger parties were those of the First Baptist Church Fire-side Club and the United Church Young People's Society, as well as smaller groups. From 8 o'clock until midnight, skating was in full swing and the air rang with the joyful shouts of the young people. Hot dogs and coffee were supplied to whet the youthful appetites and four big bonfires sparkled into the frigid air.

Handier to town, the Gryo Club's sheet of ice on Morse Creek is also being well patronized these days—in the afternoon by the children and in the evening by many grown-ups.

CURLING WAS MUCH ENJOYED

Two Rinks Played Here Yesterday Afternoon and Evening

The knights of the broom were out in force yesterday enjoying curling on the ice in the Old Grand Trunk Pacific Hotel excavation. Two rinks were used. The local curling club has eight pairs of stones which are brought up from the basement for an occasion like this. Both Monday and yesterday the curlers were out and doubtless they are at it again this afternoon and evening.

Among the players were R. L. McIntosh, J. B. Mellish, J. W. Scott, Ralph Lapine, W. H. Tobey, Roy McNaughton, W. J. Nelson, Thomas McClymont, J. H. Thompson, Fred Stork, William Millar, S. E. Parker and F. E. Robertson.
