NINE BODIES FROM SOPHIA

Deep Sea Salvage Company Report
65 Have Not Been Recovered.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Juneau, August 6.—About 65 bodies of the 343 who went down on the Princess Sophia have not been recovered. The Deep Sea Salvage Co. reported finding nine more bodies, eight within sixty feet of the wreck, the ninth in the aftermath.

The bodies recovered were those of Andrew John Smith, Cleary, Alaska; J. W. Syndman, Vancouver; Alexander McLean, Dawson, Y. T.; George W. Daig-reault, Seattle; Peter MacCaskie, Dawson; Elmer Stitzel, Menata, Alaska; Derby King, Loma, Alaska; John W. Pellwinkle, Dawson; one unidentified.

STEWART

A diamond drill has arrived at the Big Missouri mine and the contract for drilling has been let to Boyle Brothers of Anyox.

William Noble has brought down another lot of samples of Big Missouri ore from the open cutting. The ore is said to be better, the deeper they go.

Pat Daly announces that he is about to start work on the Spider group on Salmon River.

T. J. Shenton of the mining department, who has been visiting the district, speaks very highly of the mines up the Salmon River.

TOLMIE LEAVING

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Victoria, August 6.—Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, the newly appointed minister of agriculture, leaves for Ottawa today. He will be sworn in immediately on his arrival.

How Much is 1¢

Suppose that for one cent you could insure the quality of your cake, biscuits, etc., wouldn't that be real economy?

Well, one cent is about the difference in the cost of a whole cake or a pan of biscuits made with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder as compared with cheaper baking powders made from alum or phosphate—a trifle, indeed, to insure the quality and wholesomeness of your baking.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

SOLDIERS ARE GOOD SETTLERS

Merville on Vancouver Island is Developing Very Fast as Result of Applied Labor.

Merville, Vancouver Island, August 6.—The soldiers' settlement here is still growing every day. Six weeks ago there was not a single house out along the Island Highway, today there are fifty, and more than 45 of them are already tenanted. They are scattered among the logs near the main camp and gardens are springing up all round them. Today if you make inquiries of the location of a certain family you will get some such direction as this, "take the trail on the left and its the third or fourth or fifth house on the right." Its grown up with the speed of a mining town in boom times. But its mushroom growth is about the only trait in which it does resemble a mining town, for although the houses are but temporary until the men have drawn their permanent location, all the other signs point to a growth gradual but certain. Day after day furniture piled high on motor trucks and wagons goes through the town destined to embellish the interior of those homes. Many of the houses are daintily furnished, pianos and book cases are not unusual, verandahs, the work of the owners after they have toiled all day stumping or draining the marshes, are not infrequent, and everywhere springs the tender green of garden plants. The communists work for about eight hours for the settlement and four hours overtime for themselves. The Merville idea has stirred the imagination not only of those who have been accustomed to hard physical work, but also of those who have thought out the co-operative idea and are convinced that in it alone lies the salvation of the province of British Columbia.

Active With Children.

In a mining or any industrial settlement of such quick growth there would be nothing but men, here there are 45 families already and the place is alive with children. There are 60 of them on the nominal roll now. Of course that means a school, and plans have been drawn for which the province will pay, but which the communists themselves will erect.

There are today about twenty acres stumped and 100 acres picked up, or in other words there are twenty acres ready for the plough and another 100 ready for the stump drawers. The plot selected by the government for the first operations is universally conceded to be about the most expensive and hardest to clear on the whole settlement. It has cost a lot of money to clear that twenty acres, but with trained men hard-ened to the work, all experts, and a lighter stumpage, the cost will be cut down materially in future.

Co-operative Selling.

The settlers have many plans formed for co-operative selling, and as it is pretty certain that the E. & N. Railway will be extended next year towards Campbell River near the settlement, the question of transportation should not prove difficult to solve.

Today the settlement is by far the most advanced and most ambitious soldiers' land settlement scheme on the community plan in Canada and quite probably in the Empire. The germ of the idea came from a group of men returning on the Empress of Asia and today they see their idea beginning to emerge from the chrysalis stage.
