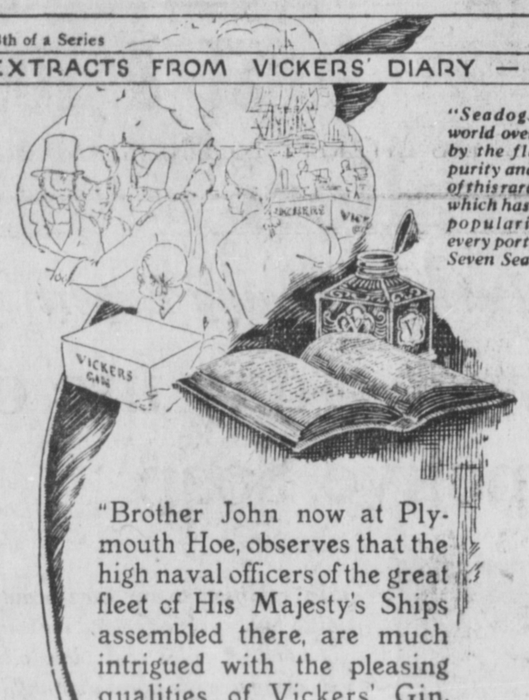
EXTRACTS FROM VICKERS' DIARY — 1752



"Seadogs" the world over swear by the flavour, purity and value of this rare spirit, which has gained popularity in every port of the Seven Seas.

"Brother John now at Plymouth Hoe, observes that the high naval officers of the great fleet of His Majesty's Ships assembled there, are much intrigued with the pleasing qualities of Vickers' Gin, many cases of which have been ordered for the Flagship."

ROUNDHOUSE GOES INTO THE CELLAR SOFTBALL LEAGUE

In a postponed game last night the Superintednent's office squeezed out the Round House by one run, the score being 13 to 12.

The game was very slow all the way through with no special features. The ball was wet and heavy and neither team could get going. This puts the Round House in the cellar with the office and Dry Dock tied for second place.

Round House—C. Rose, Foreman, Tullock, Peterson, Thompson, Teng, Glass, Cameron, Geddes.

Superintendent's Office — Smith, Holroyd, Harold, Morrison, Jackson, Forrest, Somers, Lauton, Strachan.

Sport Chat

After having been beaten by the soldiers in the first game of the series last week Empress Social Club will make another bid against the Regiment tonight to get on the credit side of the Stuart Shield series. By also defeating the Thistles on Tuesday night, the Regiment is off to a good start in the series and, just to make the rest of it easy, is said to have resolved to pick off the third win this evening. The Empress, however, also has good incentive to win and may be expected to put its best into the encounter. A good lively match for the fans should be the result

Lawn bowling, which is spoken of in Prince Rupert presents facilities for athletic exercise and recreation equalled by few and excelled by no othr outdoor field sport, suitable to all ages and both sexes. It affords each player, whether skilled or novice, an equal opportunity. As with most sports, it is a game of skill and chance, playable in singles, doubles or fours. It is probably the most sociable and fascinating of all games, a great mixer. It is inexpensive, convenient of access and especially adaptable to small communities. It has never been commercialized — no gate — and visitors are welcomed.

LOUGHRAN WON FROM BRADDOCK

Fought Fifteen Rounds in Yankee Stadium Last Night and Outpointed Opponent

YANKEE STADIUM, New York, July 19:—Tommy Loughran in a masterful exhibition successfully defended his lightweight championship last night, decisively outpointed Jimmy Braddock, the young Jersey challenger in fifteen rounds.

The champion won the unanimous decision.

The opinion of most ringsters was that Loughran won at least twelve or thirteen rounds. On just two occasions was the champion in any danger. In the first Braddock opened a cut over Loughran's eye that half blinded the title holder. Loughran had Braddock in distress in the seventh after Tommy opened a gash in Jimmy's right eye in previous rounds. But near the end of the seventh, Tommy's face was again a mass of blood from a cut on the forehead. Loughran hastily repaired, came out in the eighth to turn the match into a rout for the rest of the fight.

This morning's sunshine was not altogether an unmixed blessing for the city public works department immediately got busy with its tar outfit and was plastering the streets with tarvia. Once again housewives are wrathy at ebony foot treads and much sorrow is among the tourists at ruined brogues and splattered plus fours. One sorry sight this morning was a visitor who lost his feet in the tarry mire and ruined his canary colored costume.
