They give perfect vision—near and far—without the eye-straining, dirt catching, confusing division line of the old style cement bifocals.

They are two lenses fused into one and look like ordinary single vision lenses.

CASH AND CARRY MODERN METHOD

New Economy Store on Third Ave. Proves Attraction to Many

Cash and Carry is the modern method of shopping for those who like to be up to date. It is the sane and reasonable method. By it you know exactly what you get and get what you pay for. At the new store on Third Avenue, Prince Rupert people get all the advantages of living in a big city so far as groceries are concerned.

Besides saving money, a good deal of time is saved by shopping at Mussalem's Economy Store. The goods are displayed in such a manner that everyone can see the cost. Buyers know exactly how much they are spending and what they are getting for their money. Those people who drive cars of their own just stop in front, quickly make their purchases and have the goods at home when they want them instead of hours afterwards. Those who want delivery can get it free on five-dollar purchases or at a charge of 15c on smaller lots.

The cash and carry habit pays good dividends. (Advt.)

at the cannery, made a thorough investigation into the affair, collected evidence, and notifed the Anyox coroner, who arrived at the cannery, accompanied by Provincial Constable W. Smith, on Saturday evening.

Coroner A. W. Campbell held an inquest at Arrandale at 7:30 the same evening when the jury comprised the following: W. E. Walker, foreman, Peter Fotheringham, Thomas Young, Dr. Marius Barbeau, Organda Landry and William Field Whiteley.

After the evidence of Ernest Angus, native of Kincolith, William Lawson of Victoria, Dr. D. J. Macdonald and C. J. A rider was added expressing the "disapproval of that jury at the practice of young children being permitted to accompany their parents and other relatives out fishing."

The funeral of the late Frederick Doolan took place at Kincolith, his native place, on the afternoon of Sunday, July 7, conducted by Rev. O. Thorne, M.A., and was largely attended by relatives and friends.
