NEW VEGETABLES AND FRUIT HERE

Seasonal Offerings Feature Retail Market: Flour, Eggs and Butter Rising

Seasonal new fruits and vegetables are the feature of the local retail market these days. New beans are expected to be added to the vegetable list this week and next week new pears and freestone peaches will be arriving. Apples are now scarce at any price and no Yellow Newtons are available. Terrace strawberries of good quality are proving popular and in some sections of that district at least a good crop is expected. Casaba and honeydew melons are also being offered now.

Flour is advancing sharply on account of rising wheat prices and eggs are also showing an upward tendency. Sugar is also rising slightly.

REAL COMEDY AT CAPITOL

"The Duke Steps Out" is Hilarious Riot of Fun; Ballet Dances

"The Duke Steps Out," Lucian Cary's Saturday Evening Post tale, filmed with William Haines as "The Duke," is the attraction at the Capitol Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

This new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature is a hilarious comedy of ring and campus. Haines plays a prize fighter, who, to please his sweetheart, goes to college. His efforts to hide his profession in the classroom, and still defend his title on the outside, give rise to a score of hilariously funny situations.

Joan Crawford, who played opposite Haines in "West Point," and who recently scored a sensational hit in "Our Dancing Daughters," plays opposite him in the new picture, and the tender love story that runs through the thrills and comedy is an attractive variant in the plot. James Cruz, who directed Haines in "Excess Baggage" and "A Man's Man," directed the new picture, from a scenario by Raymond Schock.

Nowadays is bitterly hostile to any form of foolishness which endangers life and property. The Reckless Driver, the Man Who Rocks the Boat, the Man Who Didn't Know it was Loaded, are gradually disappearing under pressure of public opinion. The Man Who is Careless with Fire is the greatest menace of them all. Let public opinion focus upon him.
