

Man in the Moon

Anglo-Saxons are a predatory people. They deprive the native peoples of their birthright, the animals of their furs and the pigs of their bacon.

A woman has a fellow feeling with those who hate the same woman.

It's easy enough to start something, the difficulty is to stop it.

There are growlers in Prince Rupert but they are not rushed.

Jake says his wife does not object to the furnace going out but when he goes out too, she feels the house is too empty.

Next Sunday is St. Patrick's Day and not a bit of shamrock in sight yet. What is this world coming to?

A Scot, not feeling as well as usual, called on the family doctor, and after looking him over the medico gave him some pills to be taken at bedtime. A bottle of whiskey was also prescribed for his stomach's sake—a small glass to be taken after each meal.

Four days later Sandy was back again, stating that he felt no better.

"Have you taken the medicine exactly as I instructed" the doctor inquired.

"Weel, doctor," replied the patient, "I may be a wee bit ahint wi' the peels, but I'm six weeks ahead wi' the whusky."

Trotsky has not died lately, and yet he has been very sick.

The price of straw is going up. Ten cents worth will soon be selling for twenty dollars at the Easter sales.

Opposition is already developing against President Hoover because they did not all get the best jobs that were going. There is not opposition to Tolmie because they got them.

Life for some men seems to me Like Old home week in Hades, Because they let the world be run By children and the ladies.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

March 15, 1919

Lieut. Col. C. W. Peck V. C., M. P. for Prince Rupert, caused a sensation in the House of Commons at Ottawa yesterday in the course of a vigorous defence of General Currie against charges made by Sir Sam Hughes. Col. Peck launched an attack on Sir Charles Ferguson whom he charged might have been influenced by his German wife in connection with the occupation of Germany.

As a result of a recent trip at the end of which 103,190 pounds of fish were landed, the American halibut schooner Helgeland shared $416.13 to each man on board.

Gertrude Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Nelson, was class leader in the entrance class at King Edward School for the month of February, Principal Angus McDonald announces. She made a percentage of 76.4.
