SENSATIONAL MYSTERY PLAY AT WESTHOLME

"The Canary Murder Case," an S. S. Van Dine story, which is the week-end feature at the Westholme, is a movie that is different. The plot, which centres around the murder of "The Canary," a pretty chorus girl, is without doubt the most baffling mystery ever presented on the screen.

The murder which is committed in most mysterious circumstances provides the audience with a knotty problem to solve which holds the interest of each member of it from start to finish.
Many characters are suspected and clues are furnished as the story is unfolded. Movie fans with an amateur detective bent and others fond of mysteries will have the time of their lives.

William Powell, Louise Brooks, head a notable caste which ensures that the play is put over in first-class style. This picture is booked to play at the Capitol in Vancouver early in May.

There is also the popular serial "The Masked Menace" and a "Film Fable." Between shows the Premier Orchestra, an organization of local young people will appear on the stage and render specialty jazz numbers. There is a specially arranged program of synchronized music with sound effects.
