NEW CANADIAN NOVEL

A great many people heard Robert Watson lecture here last year and they, as well as others, will be interested to know that he has published a new book, "High Hazard," which is just off the press and which certainly enhances the reputation of the author as a writer of interesting stories.

The tale deals with life in the Arctic following a rather thrilling experience in Vancouver and another at Prince Rupert. The characters are well drawn and are intensely human. They respond to the human emotions of love and hate.

In the story the coastal steamer Lady Rathlin goes north from Vancouver on a trading trip with a cargo of supplies for the posts in the north and with several tourists signed on as members of the crew. One of these is a rich girl with a lovely voice. The daughter of the captain of the ship also goes along and these girls are the two sides of an intensely interesting love triangle.

The ship gets caught in the ice pack and eventually only three people are left aboard and they are safely cast on an Arctic island, where they live for nearly two years.

A few features are introduced which seem very improbable, but which are not beyond the bounds of possibility. The island has an active volcano honeycombed with caverns and a visit to these brings adventures which it would spoil the story to tell.

The book is one that the reader wants to finish and it leaves no unpleasant flavor at the close. It is well written and interesting throughout, full of action, and a book not to be overlooked.

BROKE RECORD FOR MARATHON

Payne of Woodford Green, England, Won Amateur Athletic Championship

LONDON, July 6.—H. Payne of Woodford Green cut nearly two minutes from the world's record for the regular marathon distance of 26 miles 385 yards yesterday, winning the event in the British amateur athletic championship. He covered the distance in 2 hours 30 minutes 57 2-5 seconds, two minutes better than the record held by the great Finn, Hans Kohlemain, in the 1920 Olympic games.

Thistles Take Second Soccer Trophy of Season by Beating Empress in Gilhuly Cup Final

Thistles, who captured the Dominion Day cup on Monday, picked off their second football trophy of the season at the Acropolis Hill grounds last evening by beating the Empress Social Club 3 to 2 in the playoff for the Gilhuly Cup, the standing for which was tied on conclusion of the recent fixture list. It was an even game all the way through and proved a thrilling match for quite a crowd of fans which was in attendance despite rather threatening weather conditions.

Playing down grade, the Empress Club was first to score with a field goal by George Howe. About ten minutes before the close of the first half, Baptie equalized and the teams crossed over one all.

About half way through the second half, a penalty was awarded against the Empress Club and Baptie put the Thistles one up. A few minutes later, Harrison sent in the third for the Scots and it looked like they had the game on ice. A penalty against Dave Jack, a few minutes before the close, was successfully converted by Brick Skinner and that closed the scoring.

Sammy Currie, captain and centre half for the Empress Club, was the outstanding player on the field and it was largely because of his efforts, with able assistance from the backs, that the Thistles did not pile up an even higher count, Baptie being dangerous at all times.

William Barton was referee and James Andrews and William Murray were linesmen. The teams were as follows:

Thistles—R. Woods; S. Erskine and D. Jack; A. Macdonald, T. Hadden and Alex Haig; H. Harrison, J. Campbell, C. Baptie, W. Mitchell and J. Farquhar.

Empress—S. Parker; R. B. Skinner and H. Pick; G. Hill, S. Currie and H. Erskine; J. McKay, V. Hillston, A. Carlson, G. Howe and S. W. Dickens.

The next football competition of the season will be for the Stuart Shield, play in which will commence next Monday.

Sport Chat

The further the 1929 Big League baseball season goes along the more it looks like a cinch for the Philadelphia Athletics to cop the American League flag and for Cornelius McGillicuddy after these many years of waiting, to build an almost perfect machine out of his bunch of wreckage. It is a peculiar thing that one hears little of any single Athletic star which goes to show that it is the whole machine and not any particular part that is responsible for the great swathe the Mackmen are cutting this year. The New York Yankees whose brilliance has been the feature of things up to 1929, look due to stay in second place this year with the prospect of doing worse than that rather than better, depending on how the St. Louis Browns and, possibly, the Detroit Tigers will work between now and the end of September.

The big race is in the National League where the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago Cubs run neck and neck for first place. Nor are the New York Giants yet out of the picture although they have been unable to gain very materially on the two pace setters during the past few weeks. Unless the St. Louis Cardinals can shake the losing streak which has been dogging them the past week or so, they may soon be deposited in the second division. Wilbert Robinson's Brooklyn Dodgers have jumped from the cellar to the leadership of the second division in a short while and there are some observers who fancy seeing the Robins in the pennant running yet. The way things have been going in the senior loop, most anything would not be surprising—even if the Boston Braves should climb to the top again, though that is considered one of the remotest possibilities.

TENNIS FINALS TODAY

Finals in the men's singles and doubles of the city tennis championships tournament are being played at the Prince Rupert Tennis Club's courts this afternoon, having been postponed from last night when weather was unsuitable.
