

WORLD'S BEST TENNIS PLAYERS COMPETE IN ALL-ENGLAND CHAMPIONSHIPS

The All-England Tennis championships, the recognized championships of the world, at Wimbledon, England. Above are seven of the leading lady stars of the world. Top, left to right: Senorita d'Alvarez, champion of Spain; K. Boman, champion of Holland; Betty Nuthall, Britain's second ranking star, and Fr. Aussem, youthful champion, who hails from Germany. Bottom, left to right: Helen Wills, champion of the United States and single champion of the world; Eileen Bennett, Britain's best, and Miss Tapscott, one of the leading lady players of South Africa.

WORLD RECORD FOR ENDURANCE

Plane City of Cleveland Was in Air Over 174 Hours Landing at Midnight

CLEVELAND, July 6.—A new world's record for refueled airplane flights was attained soon after midnight by pilots Roy Mitchell and Byron Newcomb who took off in the monoplane City of Cleveland a week ago Friday night and had been in the air since. When the plane descended this morning the official timing gave them the record of 174 hours and 59 seconds. The former endurance record was established at Fort Worth, Texas, by Pilot S. Robbins and Kelley who remained aloft 172 hours 32 minutes 1 second.

ATCHERLEY WON KING'S CUP FOR AIRPLANE RACE

LONDON, July 6.—Flight Lieutenant Atcherley, a member of the British Schneider cup team, today won the King's cup air race in a 1169-mile flight around the British Isles.

HENRI COCHET IS CHAMPION

Wen in Singles From Borotra; Britain Wins Women's Doubles

WIMBLEDON, July 6.—Henri Cochet of France won the men's singles' final by defeating his countryman, Jean Borotra, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Mitchell of Great Britain won the women's doubles, defeating Mrs. Covell and Mrs. Shepherd Barron of Great Britain, 6-4, 8-6. Miss Helen Wells and Frank Hunter of the United States won the mixed doubles, defeating C. Collins and Miss Joan Frye of England, 6-1, 6-4.

UNITED STATES WON AT TENNIS

Doubles Championship Goes to Van Ryan and Allison at Wimbledon Today

WIMBLEDON, July 6.—The United States team, Van Ryan and Allison, won the British doubles tennis championship today, defeating Gregory and Collins of Great Britain in the finals, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3, 10-12, 6-4.

WINS FIRST ROUND

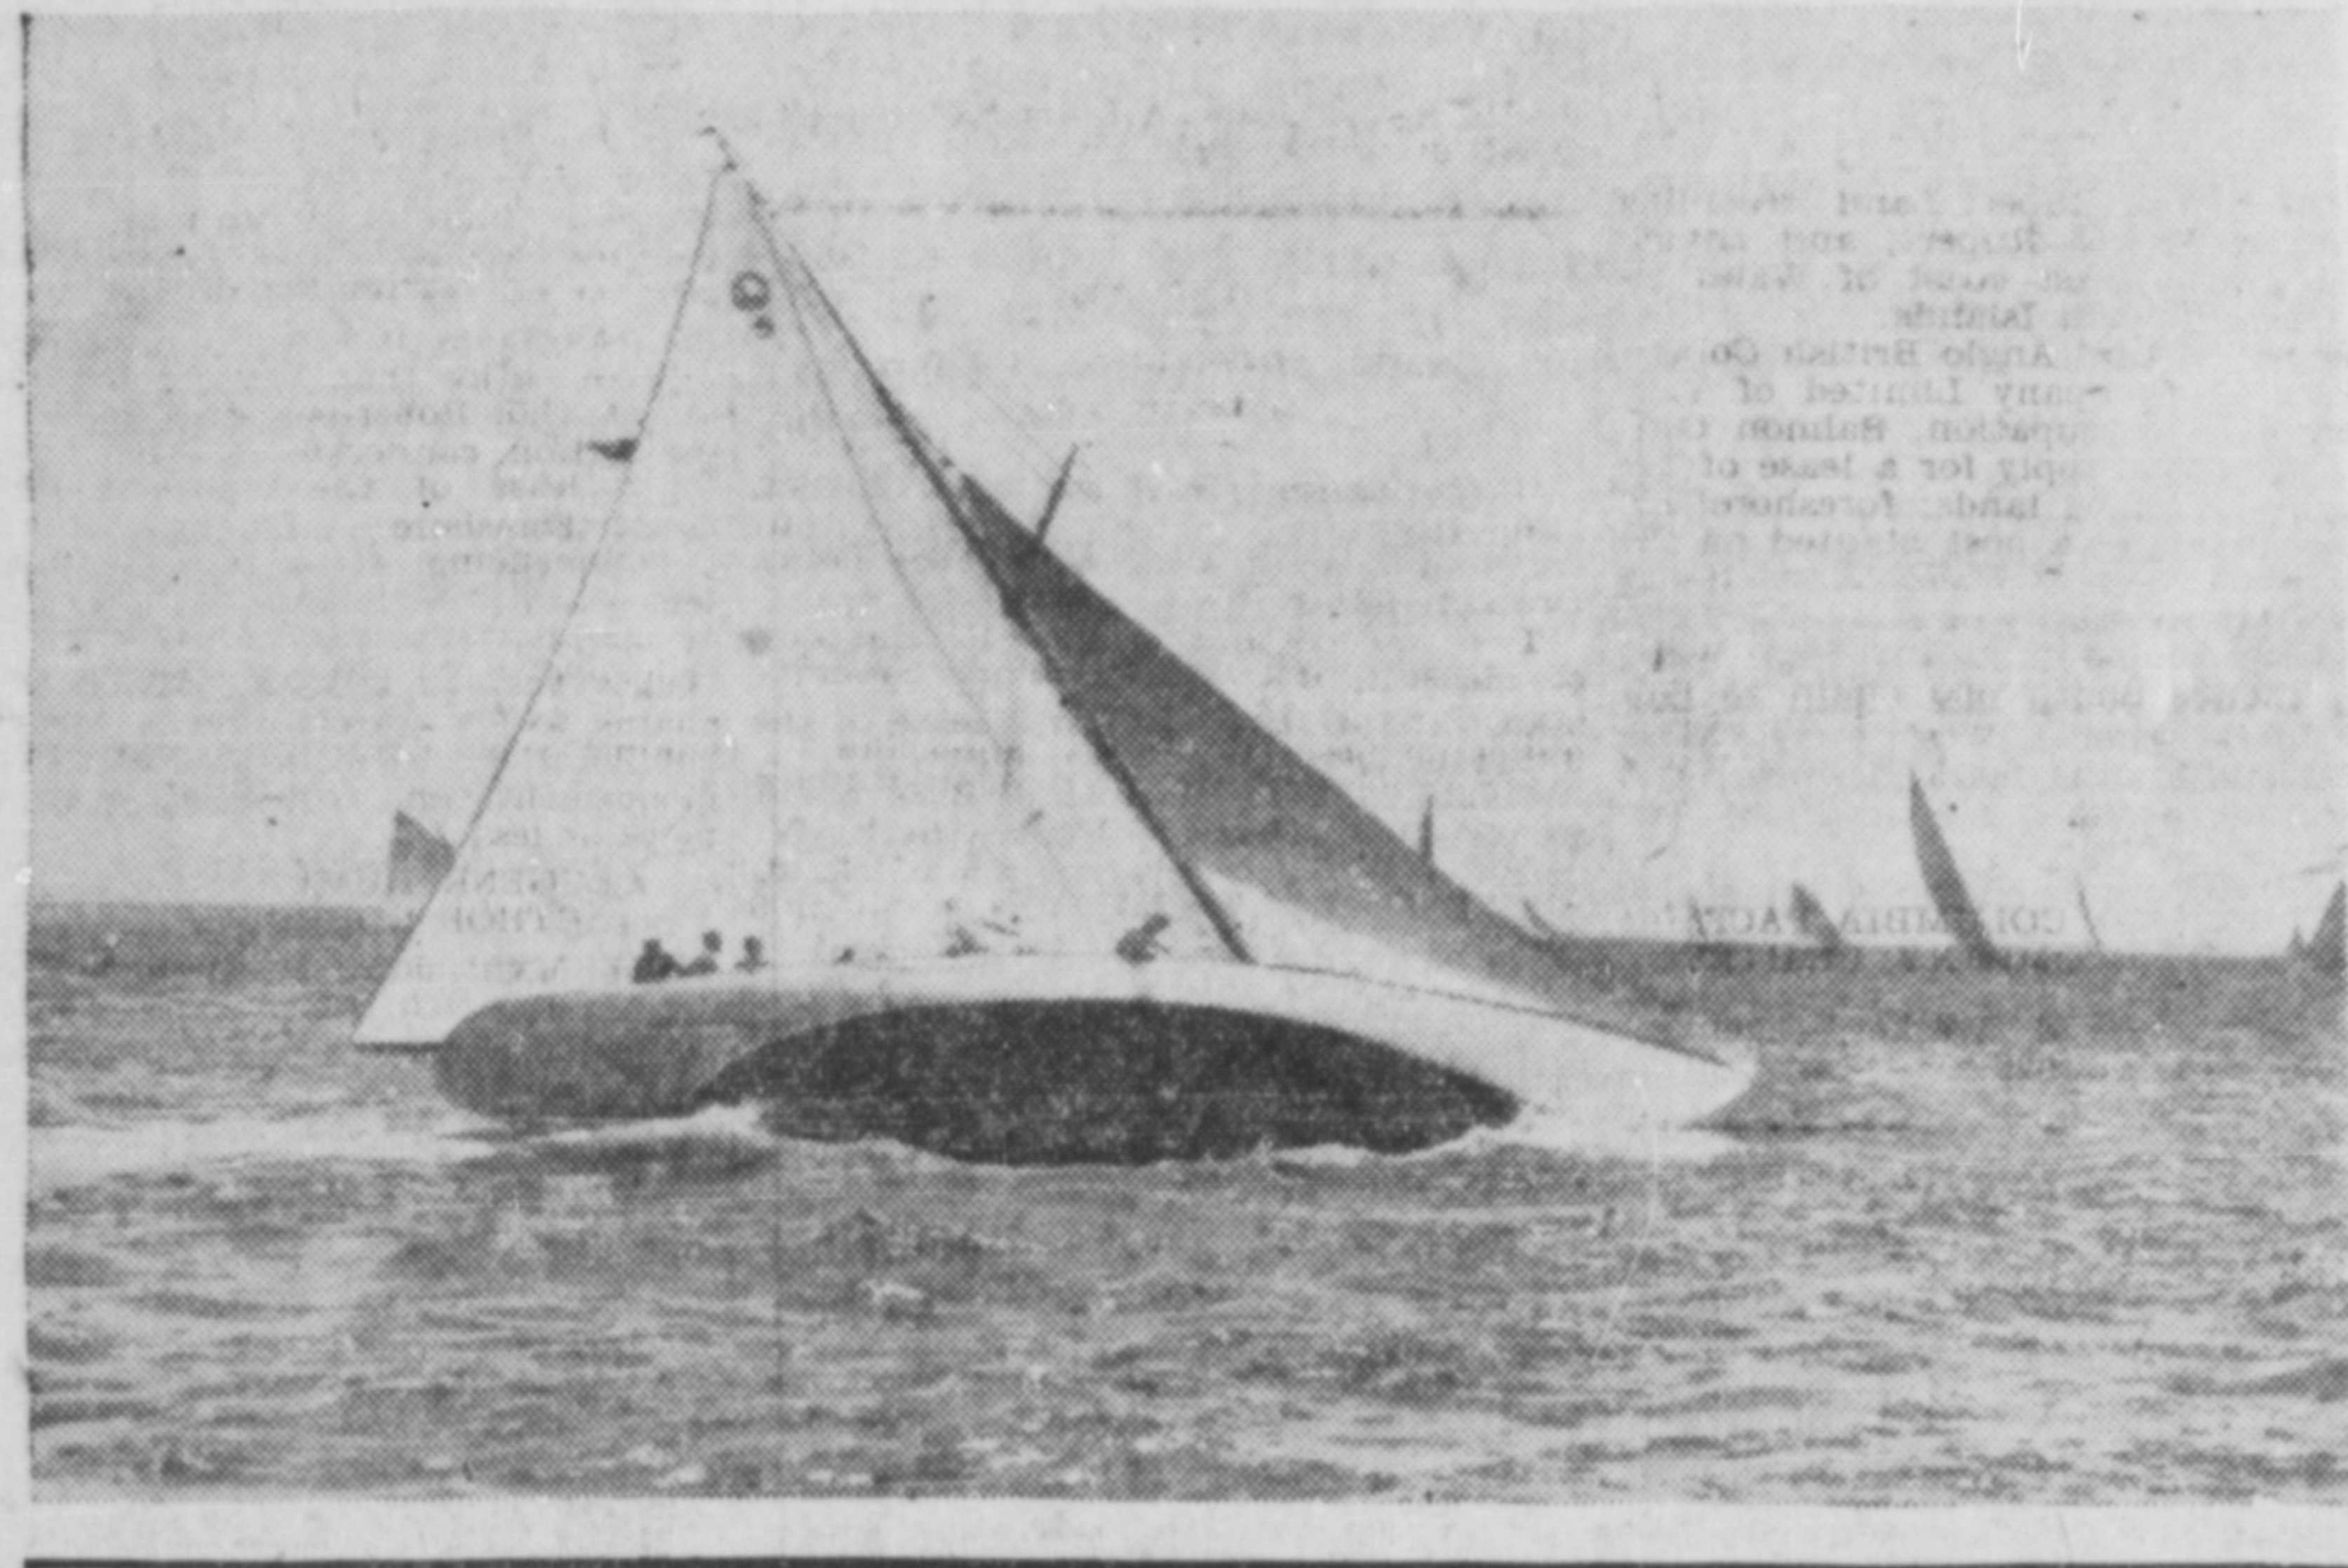

Willard Crocker, second ranking tennis player in the Dominion, who has been playing in a number of tournaments in Europe, was successful in getting through the first round of an All-England championships at Wimbledon. He defeated J. S. Harrison in a hard match.

SOFTBALL POSTPONED

Owing to unsuitable weather, the C.N.R. Softball League game between Round House and Superintendent's Office was postponed until next week.

PROOF OF THE PUDDING

Fond Mother—What's the matter, my precious? Precious—I don't like my cake. "Then don't eat it." "But I have eaten it."—Tit Bits

THE THRILL AND SPICE OF YACHT RACING IS DEMONSTRATED HERE Splendid shot of Mirage at a dangerous angle as she crossed the finish line at the American Club regatta at Rye, N.Y.

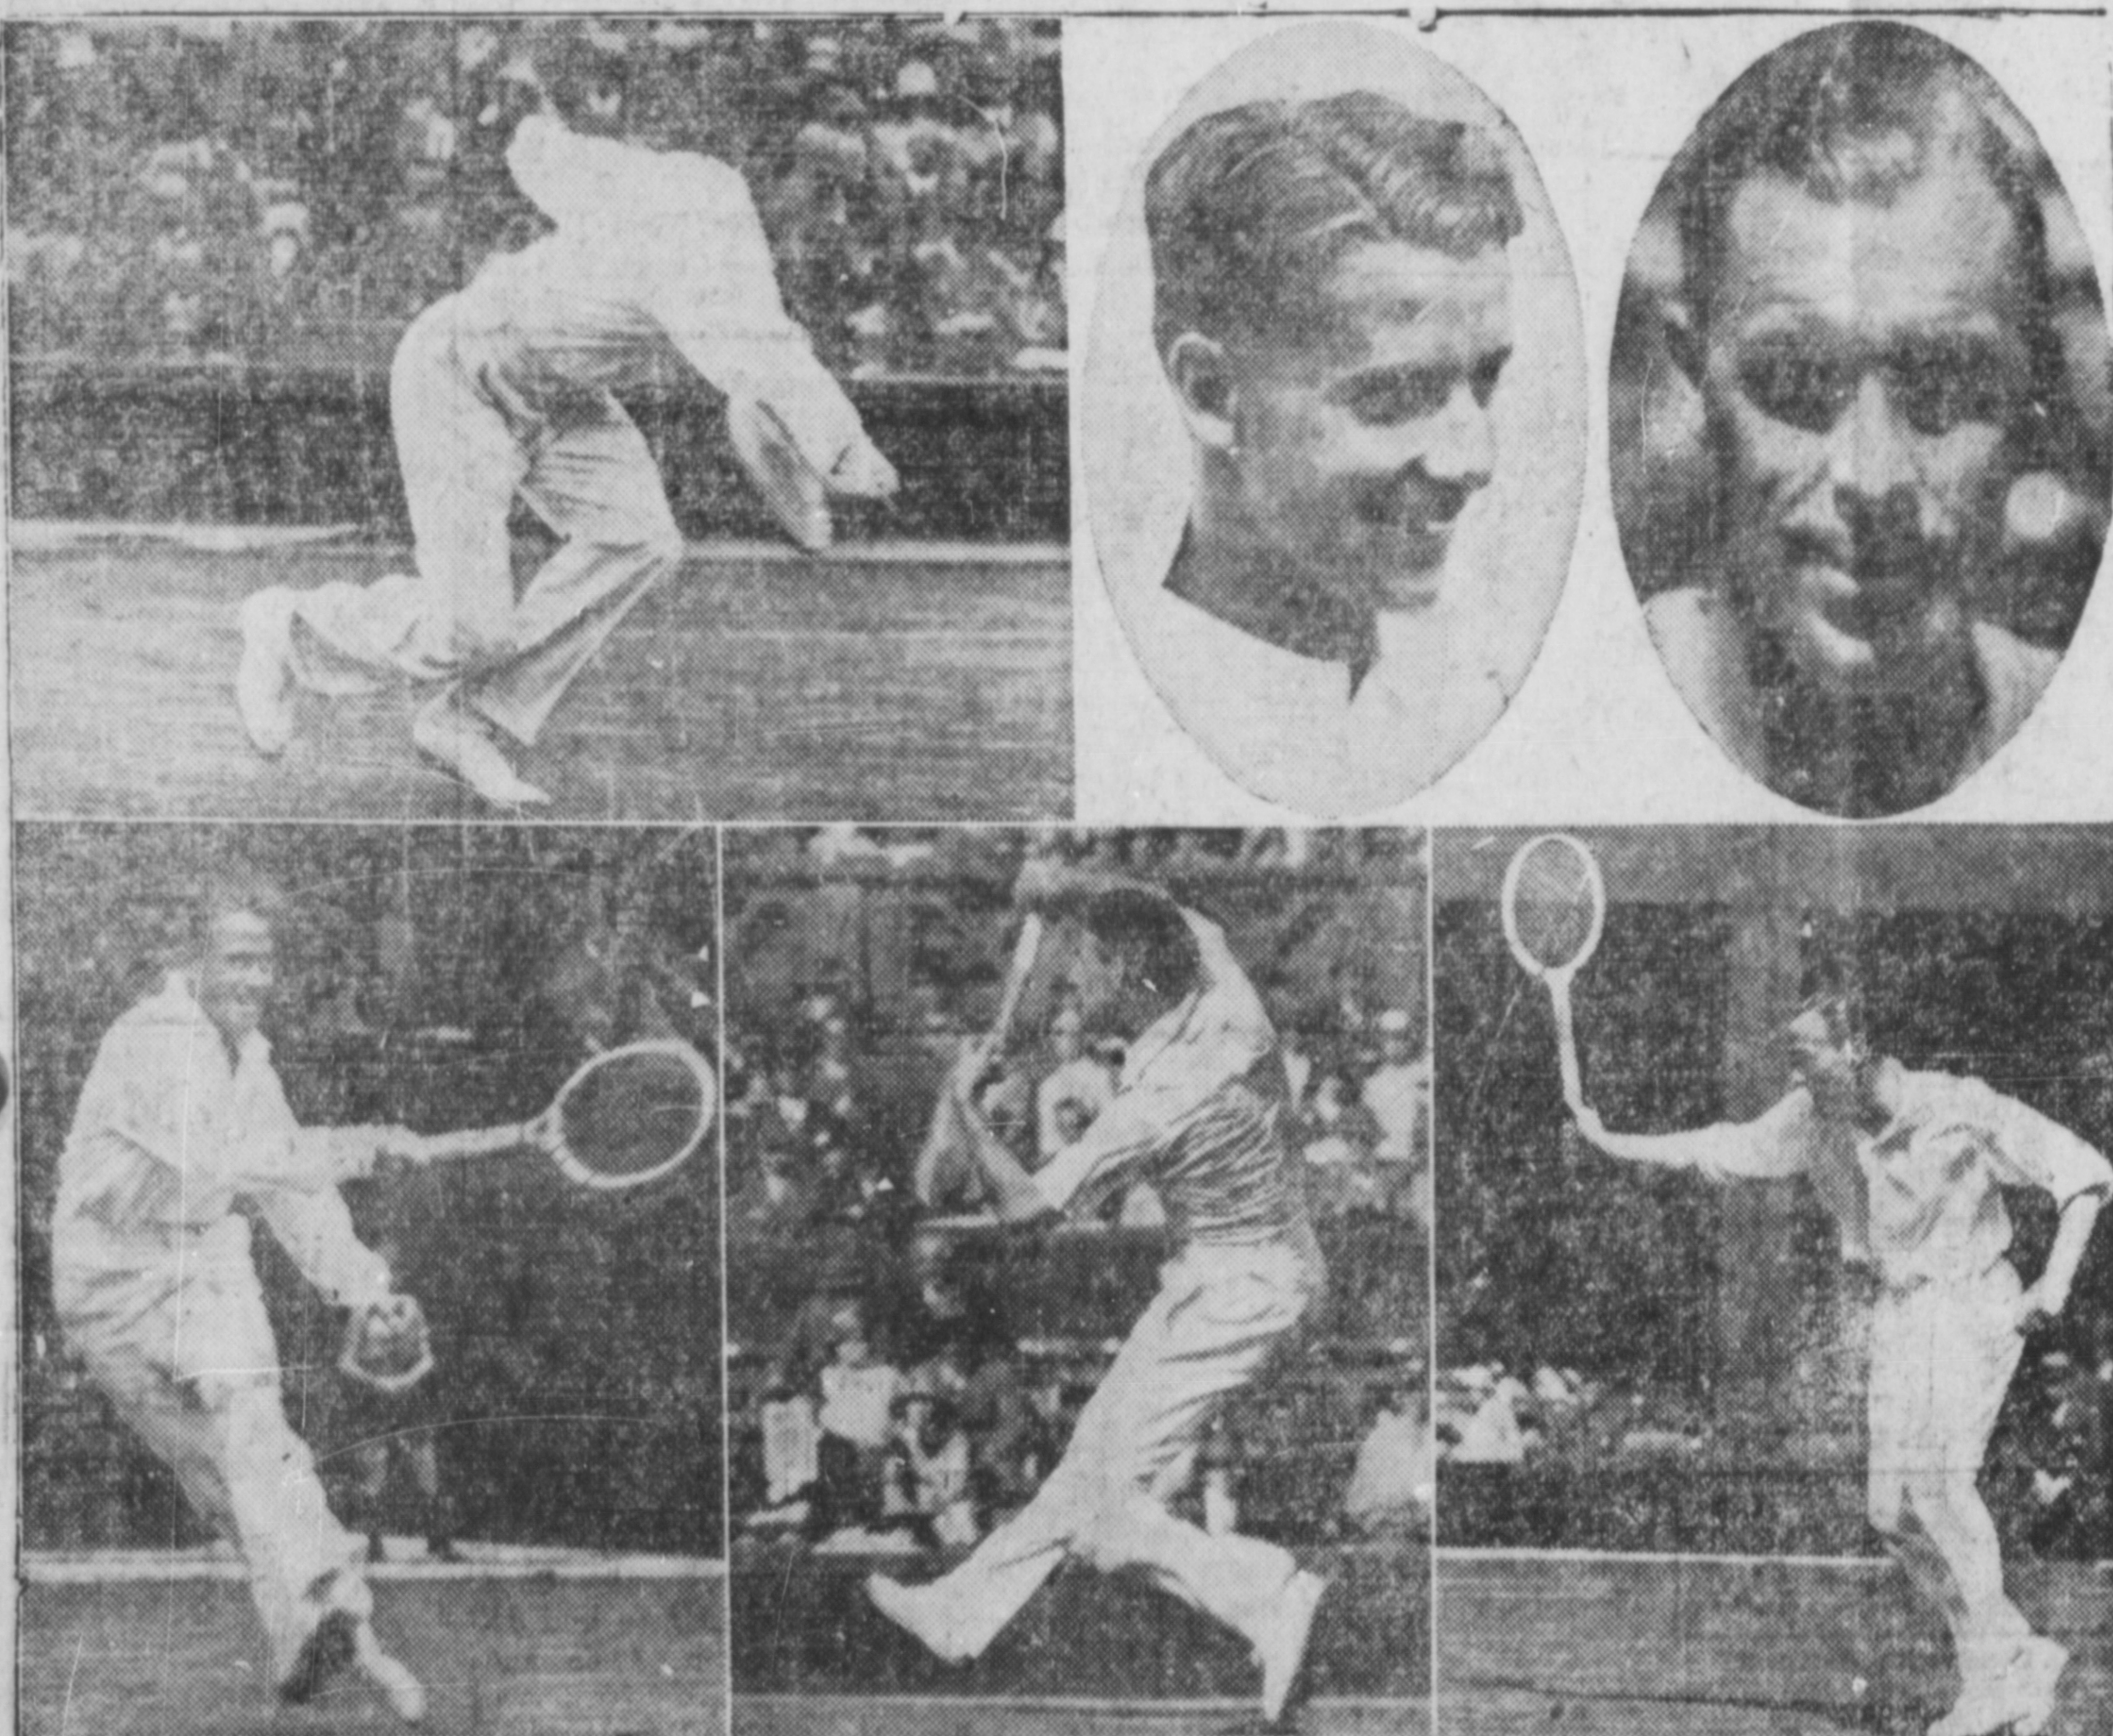

CONEY ISLAND "MINING"

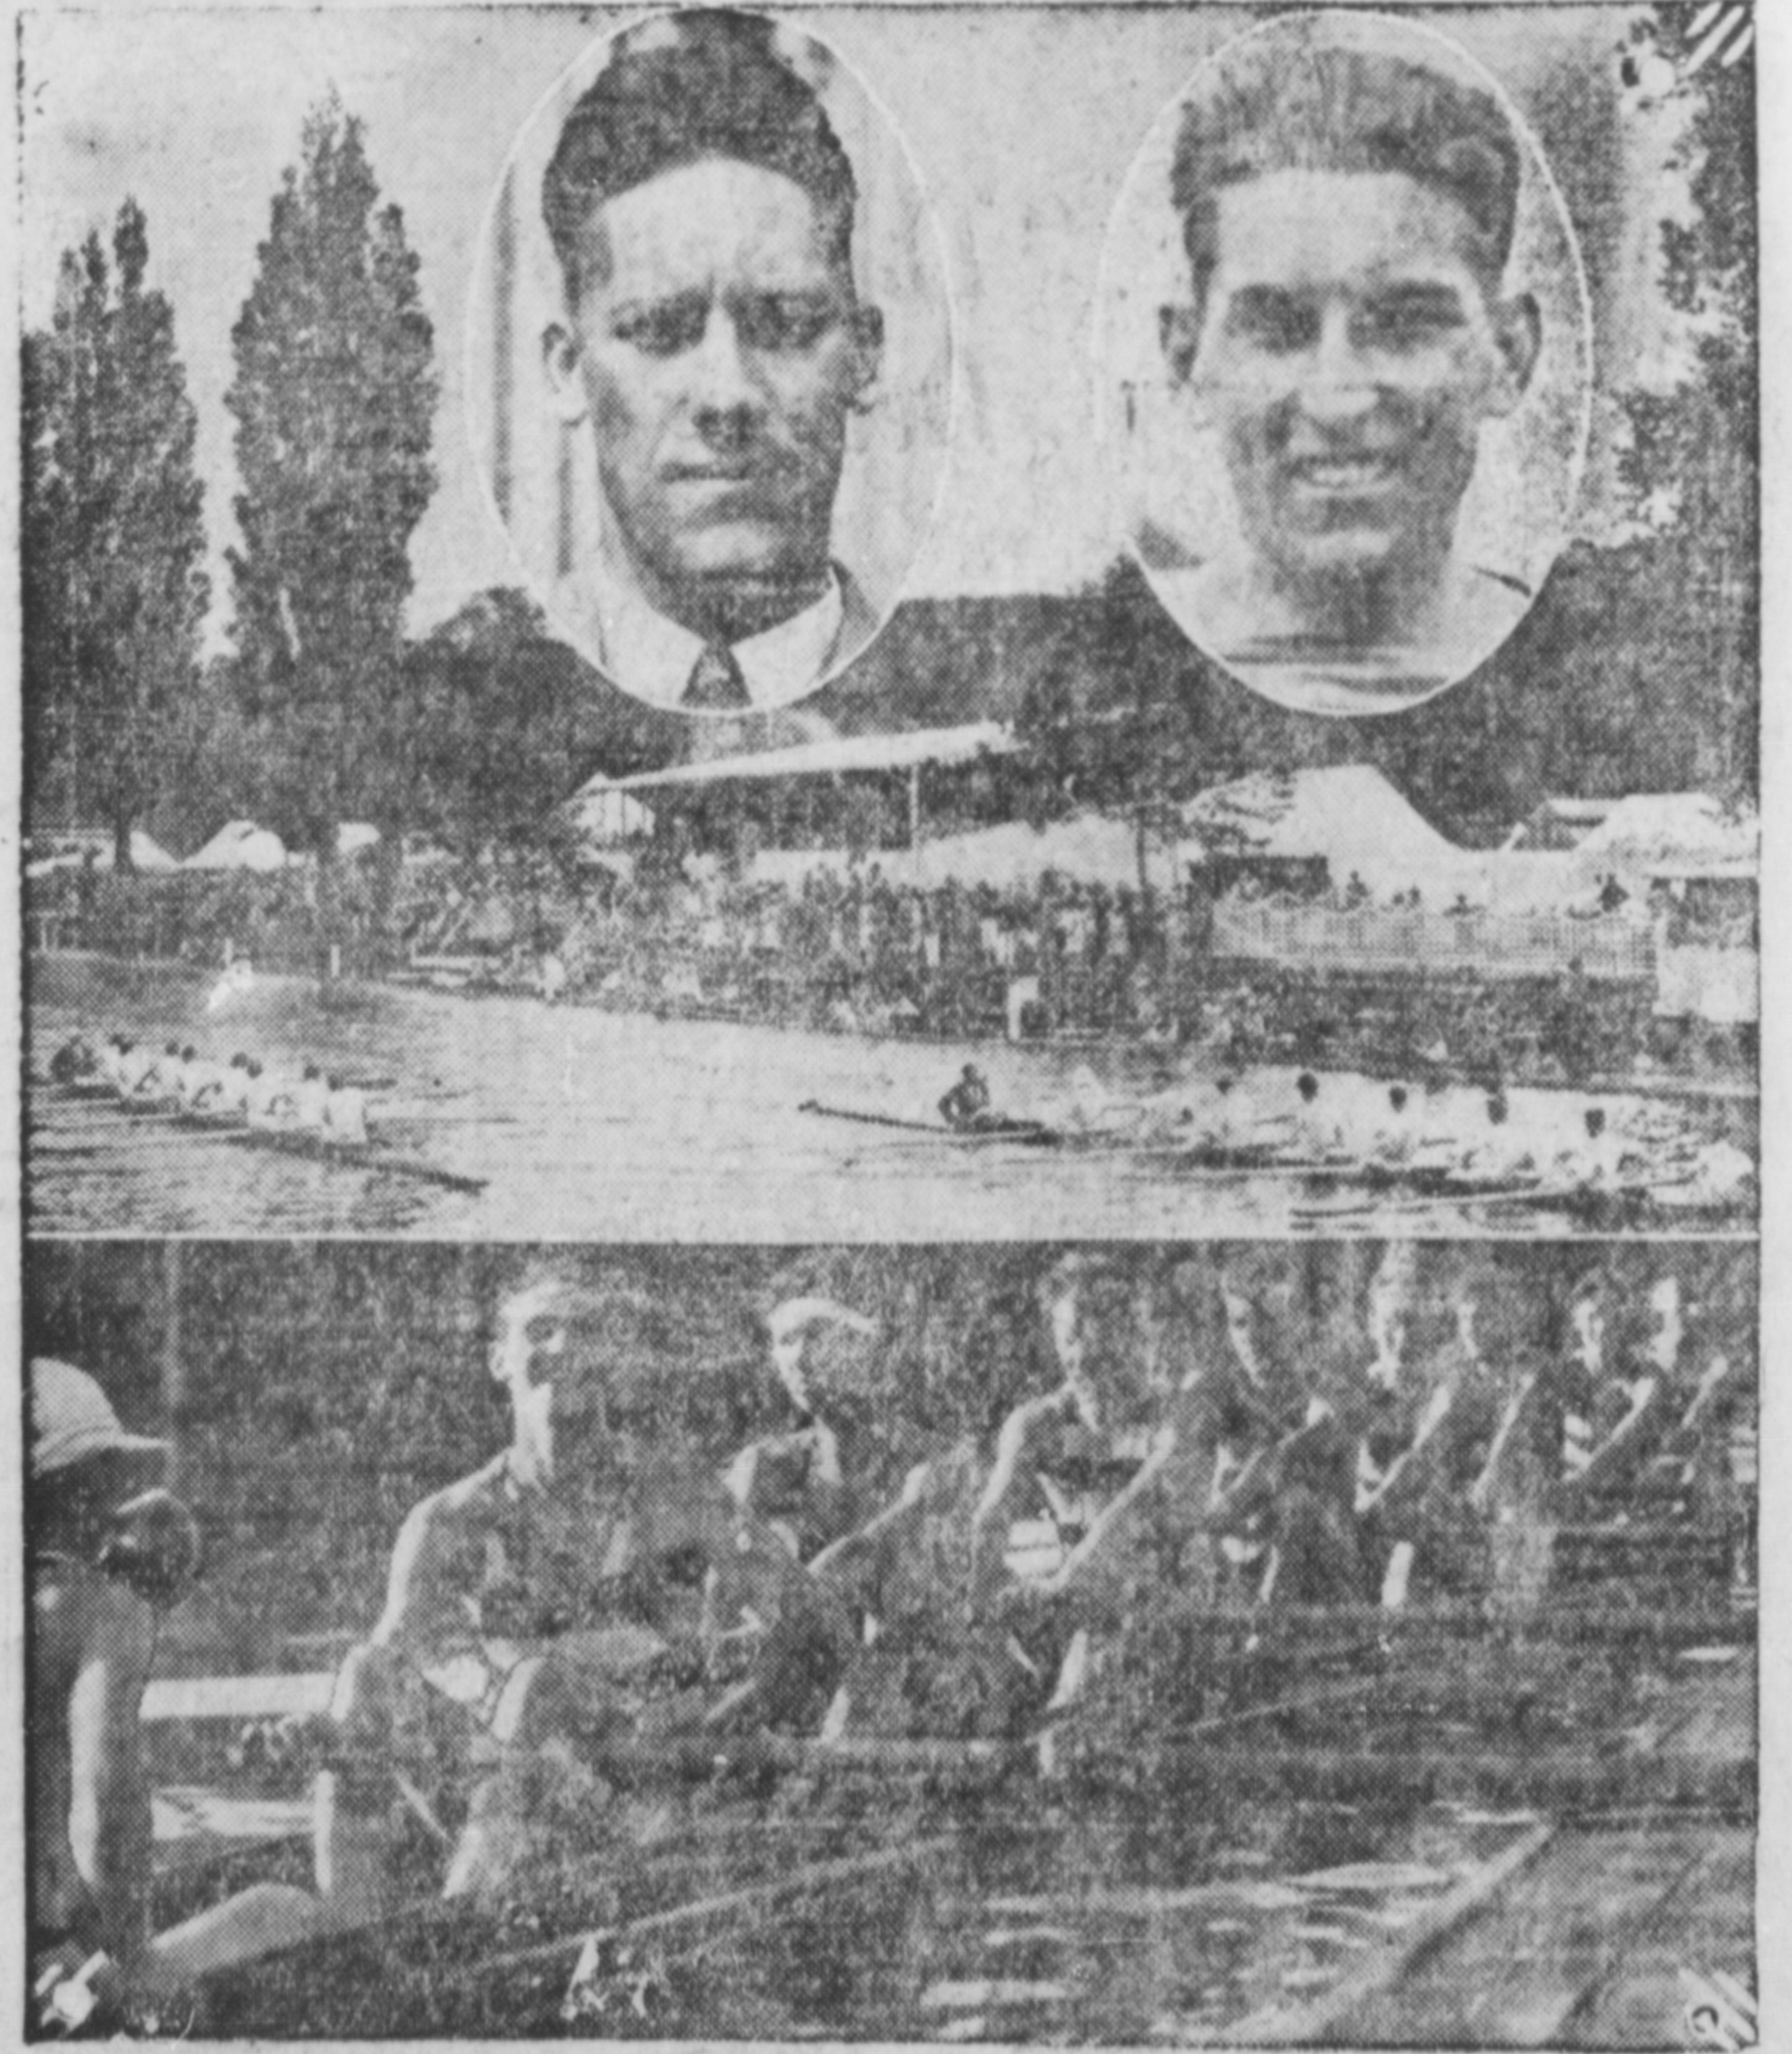

Washing sand from the beach. The "pay yield" is in coin, trinkets and other valuables.

FAMOUS SOCCER TEAM ARRIVES ON S.S. OLYMPIC FOR AMERICAN GAMES Preston North English soccer team of Lancashire, England, recently arrived in New York to play a series of matches in United States and Canada.

Never since the inception of the All-England Lawn Tennis championships at Wimbledon, England, has there been such a fine gathering of star tennis champions from all nations. Above are six of the principle male stars, some of whom have gone down to defeat. Top, left to right: Henri Cochet, France's leading player; W. H. "Bunny" Austin, Britain's youngest star, who is the sensation of the year, and William Tilden, veteran champion of the United States. Bottom, left to right: Wilbur Coen, pupil of Tilden's; Jean Borotra, one of France's best; and Baron V. de Morpurgo of Italy.

Joe Wright who was beaten today by L. Gunther of Holland in the diamond sculls finals at Henley at the left top and Jack Guest with him. Below is the Argonaut Senior Eight, Canada's entry for the Grand Challenge Cup which the Leanders won today.