NATIONAL LEAGUE RECEIVES VISITOR

P. W. Robertson Addresses Local Chinese Organization; Organizing Sunday Schools.

Tuesday evening in the rooms of the Prince Rupert branch of the Chinese National League there was a very interesting meeting when about thirty Chinese boys gathered to hear P. W. Robertson who is on a trip through the west in connection with the organization of night schools for these people. If possible Mr. Robertson is going to secure volunteers who will take the matter up and give of their spare time in helping to build up this movement. It is also the intention to form a Sunday school in connection with the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

Mr. Robertson arrived in the city on Sunday evening and lost no time in getting the matter drawn to the attention of local interested parties. The Chinese had heard from their branch in Edmonton of the possible arrival of the member and lost no time in calling their number together. Mr. Robertson leaves for Vancouver tonight and will organize in the other cities to the south, visiting Seattle, Victoria, and New Westminster. The trip will cover about three weeks and is being voluntarily carried on by himself.

SPLENDID SHOW BY VAUDEVILLE TROUP

Charlie Chaplin's New Picture Also a Scream From the Beginning to End.

There was an entire change of program given by the West and Fields vaudeville company at the Westholme Theatre last night and the same show will be given tonight. There was plenty of zip to it throughout and the audience was kept on tiptoe listening to the jokes and gags which enlivened the intervals between the musical numbers.

West is a scream all the time. From the moment he appears on the stage until he leaves it is impossible to keep a straight face. The other parts are well sustained and the whole vaudeville program, which by the by, is in addition to the regular picture features, is lively and refreshing.

Charlie Chaplin's new million dollar picture, "Sunnyside," would at an ordinary time be considered a show in itself. Charlie is in a new role this time. He is the manservant at a hotel and many of the scenes are most ludicrous. Opinion is very much divided as to whether this picture is better than the last or not. It is different, however, and that is what is wanted.

The Westholme last night was crowded to the doors by an eager audience and the verdict was in every case that it was a first rate show.

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT AT EMPRESS THEATRE

The six-part film "Vengeance" featuring Montagu Love and Barbara Castleton at the Empress Theatre last night proved most entertaining. There were plenty of thrills and tense situations and the interest was well sustained.

"A Fight for Millions," the serial, showed a rattling good episode and there was the British-Canadian Gazette that gave up-to-date current events.

The program is to be repeated tonight.
