

NEW UNIVERSITY HEAD

Hon. Harry Cockshutt, former Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, who has been elected Chancellor of the University of Western Ontario, London, in succession to Hon. W. J. Roche of Ottawa. Hon. Mr. Roche is retiring after 13 years in office.

Man in the Moon

A man is not necessarily bright because he gets lit up.

Mussolini holds eight out of the thirteen portfolios in the Italian cabinet. That gives him a majority all the time. I wonder if he draws the salary for each.

So spring is here with all its joys.

Spring that we love so well; But sad to say its cold at nights

And what to say in this last line do tell.

Never worry about how the other fellow lives. If he has no other means of livelihood he probably lives on credit.

The very height of arrogance for a man to send for his banker when he wishes to interview him.

The more laws we have the more jails we shall have to build to punish the offenders.

Some men like taking the wife's little woolly dog out for exercise. There's no accounting.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

May 14, 1919 Major George E. Bull, district engineer for the federal department of public works, has returned from a trip to Ottawa. He states that Prince Rupert is to get a fishermen's float at Shawatinas Lake and that the bar is to be cut through at Metlakatla.

The seizure of a distilling plant and 200 gallons of liquor was made this morning by Constables McGlinchy, Leek and Adams on Sixth Avenue in a shack between Conrad and Donald Streets.

Two shifts are working at the Silver Standard mine near Hazelton and concentrates are being shipped.

An Interesting Announcement

Of particular interest to all British Columbians is the announcement of a series of short talks about B. C. and B. C. products that is to run in this paper every week. These talks throw an interesting light on the development and progress that has been going on in recent years. Read them carefully—there is a worthwhile message in each article.
