PRETTY WEDDING LAST EVENING

Miss Mae Ryan Becomes Bride of Thos. J. Maloney in Presence of Many Friends.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place last evening at the Catholic Church rectory, when Miss Mae Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ryan of this city, became the bride of Thomas J. Maloney, of Seattle, formerly of the G. T. P. service here.

The bride looked beautiful as she entered the rectory on the arm of the groom. She was gowned in white georgette embroidered over white silk and wore a white tulle veil with orange blossoms.

Miss Margaret Ryan, her sister, made a most charming bridesmaid, dressed in pale blue crepe de chine, with slippers to match wearing a white satin picture hat and carrying a shower bouquet of roses and carnations.

M. Malone, of Edmonton, who had come over especially for the occasion, was best man.

As the bridal party entered Mrs. J. J. Alexander played on the organ the Wedding March from Lohengrin, and sang "O Promise Me."

The ceremony over, the bridal party passed to the motor car amid showers of rice and confetti from the crowds of girl friends of the bride, with whom she was a great favorite, and who took this method of showing their appreciation of her.

Reception.

A reception was held during the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan on Thompson St. where a number of guests were entertained. During supper Mrs. Alexander sang "I Love You Truly" and the cake was cut by the bride and small portions carried away by each guest.

The wedding ring was of the latest pattern inset with diamonds. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a beautiful pair of diamond earrings, and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links.

The wedding presents were both costly and numerous and included many beautiful pieces of cut glass and silverware.

Mrs. Ryan, the mother of the bride, wore brown taffeta and made a charming hostess. She was assisted by her other daughters and by Mrs. Alexander. Shortly before midnight the party broke up and proceeded in motors to the dock where they were joined by hives of young people who gathered to see their popular young friends off.

The bride's going away suit was of midnight blue serge and she wore a white georgette hat with white wings. As the Prince George pulled out from the wharf rice and confetti were showered on the happy couple and the party on the shore sang "Aloha Farewell" and "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" and the bridal bouquet was thrown and caught by Miss Griffiths.

Mr. and Mrs. Maloney will make their home in Seattle at the Abbotsford apartments.

Mrs. Gerscheitz and Mrs. L. Ritstein arrived from the south on the boat on Wednesday morning. The two ladies are here on a brief holiday visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Goldblom.

HOUDINI IS HERE, THE HANDCUFF KING

Houdini, the Handcuff King, in "The Master Mystery" is the big feature which opens tonight at the Empress Theatre as a serial. It is a wonderful story and shows the great handcuff expert at his best.

The regular feature at this theatre tonight is "The Green God" from the novel of the same name and featuring Harry Morey and Betty Blythe. In this story a girl is bartered by her father who is a curio collector, for a green god which he has induced a friend to steal for him. A mysterious hand interposes and the man who was to have married her is found dead. The plot is a curious one and is most fascinating.
