Canadian National Coast Steamships will go on spring, double weekly service the last week in March. The steamers Prince George and Prince Rupert will arrive here from the south at 10:30 Wednesday and Saturday mornings respectively, here at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays and south at 10 p.m. the same days.

This schedule will be effective

Next week, the steamer Prince Rupert, which has been carrying out the once-a-week service all winter, will be withdrawn at Vancouver for overnaul and will be replaced by the Prince George, which has been tied up at Vancouver since last fall. Capt. Harry Nedden and all the regular officers of the Prince George will come out with the vessel while the officers of the Prince Rupert remain with their ship

The service to the Queen Charlotte Islands will remain as at The Ocean Falls Liberal As- present until June, it is under-
