Two resolutions were passed by the Presbytery of the United Church yesterday having to do with the liquor traffic as follows:

Government Sale of Liquor The Presbytery of Prince Rupert hereby sets forth its emphatic Lancaster of McBride are expect toon on this morning's train opposition to government sale of liquor as a beverage.

We would declare: 1. That such a traffic is morally indefensible, and contrary to the mind and spirit of Jesus been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. morning's train for a short trip Christ, the Lord and Saviour of

2. That government sale of liquor has not decreased drinking in our province, as witnessed by the continued increase of both total sales and per capita con-

3 That is has not eliminated the bootlegger, but, if anything, has aided his operations, since government liquors have been purchased by these people and resold contrary to law!

For these reasons we would urge our ministers and people:

1. To create by every means in their power the conviction of the moral necessity for total abstinence from the beverage use of alcoholic liquors.

2. To instruct the people as to the moral and economic loss incurred through government sale of
