SCHOOL BOARD FIRST SESSION

Thomas McMeeking Appointed Chairman and Financial Statement Shown

At a meeting of the school board last night Thomas McMeeking was chosen chairman and the board at once got down to work on the estimates. There was a full meeting, those present being, in addition to the chairman, Mrs. Spencer and Trustees Gilchrist, Barrie and Thompson. Inspector Fraser attended to advise the board in regard to the needs of the schools. The new members of the board were welcomed by the chairman. It was decided to change the date of meeting of the school board to the second Wednesday in each month. This was done to convenience retailers on the board, who have a half holiday on Thursday.

A statement prepared by the secretary was handed to members of the board, showing that a deficit of 1927 amounting to $1100.98 had been paid off, leaving a balance to their credit of $2531.

The cost of the various schools in the city for the year 1928 was as follows:
King Edward $18,401.72
Booth Memorial 30,309.08
Borden Street 18,003.28
Seal Cove 3,546.23
Westview 2,012.43
Progress was made on the preparation of the estimates.

And teas from finest gardens make the blend.

FINAL DRAFT OF AGREEMENT MADE FOR SALE OF POWER AND LIGHT IN CITY NOW COMPLETED.

lature ratifying the deal can be secured.

The city reserves the water supply at Woolworth Lake sufficient at all times to supply the needs of the city. The Corporation agrees to pay one third of the cost of maintaining the dam during the period of joint occupation.

The company agrees to carry on supplying the city with light and power at rates not any higher than at present and in the meantime to proceed with the construction of a power plant at some place other than Woolworth Lake, the work to be completed within two years with six months grace in case of need. This plant shall be able to deliver to the city 5,000 horsepower and to continue development as the need shall arise until a total of 100,000 horsepower or more is being delivered.

The company puts in a modern street lighting system and supplies the city with power and light at $15 net per year for each light of 100 watts, and higher power at proportionate rate.

The company takes over existing city contracts and provision is made for city control of new work and for joint use of poles in case it may be desirable. The company is bound to observe all city by-laws and conform to all regulations, to pay taxes and to pay all its employees the current rate of wages.

The franchise is given for 25 years subject to renewal if the city so wishes.

Should there be a provincial law passed providing for a public utilities commission, the corporation will come under the scope of its activities and be controlled by it.

BURNS' MEMORY DULY HONORED

Birthday of National Bard Celebrated by St. Andrew's Society

About 750 persons were present at the celebration last night by the local St. Andrew Society at the I. O. D. Hall in honor of the anniversary of the birth of the national bard, Robert Burns.

Scottish dancing was engaged in from 8:30 p.m. until 2 a.m. with music by an orchestra consisting of John Bremner, James Watt, J. B. Mackay and W. Vaughan Davies. James Irvine, president of St. Andrew's Society, acted as master of ceremonies.

Supper was served at midnight after which the customary toast to "The King" was honored. The toast to "The Immortal Memory" was responded to by Rev. T. H. McAllister, pastor of Rupert East United Church, who gave a brilliant address on Burns. The Haggis was brought in in the customary manner by Piper H. Smith and George Scott and Alex Cannon, in splendid style, recited "The Address to the Haggis." During the supper interval President Irvine read a poem entitled "A Tribute to Burns," which was written for the occasion by Mrs. James Carmichael of California, a former resident of this city.

The committee in charge consisted of George Geddes, chairman, Howard Steen, J. McLean and J. Dick. R. Wiggins presided at the door.

Austin Brown, former resident of the city, who is visiting here from California, will sail tomorrow evening on the Catala for a trip to Anyox.
