Eulogizes the Two Great Railways of Canada, One SIX MILLIONS Greatest Privately-Owned Line and Other as Greatest Experiment in Public Ownership

"No businesses in the world are better managed than he two great transportation companies of Canada, the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National," leclared Judge McKeown, chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners, at the Board of Trade luncheon yes- 000,000 refunding issue which maerday. "The C.P.R. is the finest privately owned line tured on Friday was all placed n the world and the Canadian National is the greatest xperiment in a national state-owned railway," he said.

"The people of Prince Rupert have hoped to benefit eavily from the activities of one of these railways, but heir dreams and aspirations have not yet been realized. am convinced, however, that there has been only a postonement of the highest hopes. They are not dead. LIEUTENANT-GOV. Applause).

Mr. McKeown said the great country which the port served offered opportunities which would quicken the life of the industrial centres. No ten million people in the world were doing as much as the ten million people in Canada and while the incidence of war had retarded the growth of Prince Rupert to its fullest, the hopes of the people would yet come true. Doukhobors in Grand Forks District Repel the Provincial Police and Challenge Force

GRAND FORKS, Jan. 26. - Doukhobors in the Grand Forks district, at war with the provincial police, have already won the first skirmish. Two officers were on Thursday forced to flee before an army of angered, naked Doukhobors, when they sought to arrest three of their numbers at a ranch near here. One hundred of the Sons of Freedom, a sect of fanatics, all naked, stormed, fumed, and with incisive wrath drove the officers from the vicinity, and although the temperature was below the zero mark, the nude Douks danced about in fanatical frenzy, issuing a challenge to the whole police force to arrest one of their number.

The party is being reinforced by additional Doukhobors.
