FAREWELL FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Miss Georgina Hunter and Sydney Hunter Honored by Friends Last Night in I. O. D. E. Hall

A delightful farewell dance, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Steen and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brooksbank, was held last night in the I. O. D. E. Hall in honor of Miss Georgina Hunter and Sydney Hunter, who are leaving the city on Sunday night for Ontario. There were about 125 persons present, most of them being old friends here of the two guests of honor. The affair was of a formal nature and many beautiful gowns were in evidence. The hall was suitably decorated.

From 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. excellent music was furnished by the Premier orchestra and Arthur Brooksbank was master of ceremonies. The program included a few novelty dances and pleasing features were vocal solos by Mrs. William Millar and Mrs. J. H. McLeod, who were both in fine voice. Mrs. C. E. Cullin being the accompanist.

About 11:30 p.m. delicious refreshments, brought by the ladies in attendance, were served and a wonderful presentation on behalf of all present, which came as a complete surprise, was made to the guests of honor by Mayor S. D. McMorris, who spoke briefly. Miss Hunter received a beautiful silver tea service, while a dressing case, consisting of handsome brushes and comb, was presented to her brother, Sydney Hunter and D. McD. Hunter, father of the recipients, expressed thanks, and the incident was closed with the singing of "For They Are Tolly Good Fellows."

A beautiful shower bouquet, presented during the evening by Mrs. Hunter, was made by William Millar.

FORMER LOCAL LADY MARRIED

Miss Julia Calderone of Anyox Becomes Bride of Norman H. Roberts

ANYOX, May 10:—A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday in the United Church, when Julia, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Calderone, became the bride of Norman H. Roberts, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts of Cessford, Alberta, the Rev. Jas. Dewar officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white canton crepe and the conventional bridal veil, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations and white irises. She was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Calderone, who wore a gown of blue georgette trimmed with velvet. Her picture hat was of gold mohair braid. She carried a bouquet of rose colored carnations.

C. A. McElroy of Cessford, Alberta, supported the groom.

Mrs. N. R. Redman played the wedding march and during the signing of the register Mrs. F. M. Ethridge sweetly sang "Because." The ushers were Antonio and Alfred Calderone. The church was decorated for the occasion with white streamers and bells, and plants.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple received beautiful gifts from their numerous friends.

Among the out of town guests were the groom's parents and C. A. McElroy of Cessford, Alberta, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Ciccone of Port Clements, B.C.

The happy couple left on the C.N.R. steamer enroute to Alberta where they may locate. For travel the bride wore an apple green flat crepe dress, navy blue tailored coat and fox fur, the gift of the groom. A small hat of visca straw completed her costume.

The best wishes of all are extended to the newlyweds who are so popular and well known.

R. G. Johnston, manager of Inverness cannery, arrived in town from the river on yesterday afternoon's train.

"The Haunted House"

Those who like their mystery seasoned with laughter and who refer a cold chill topped by a grin, will do well to see "The Haunted House."

Chester Conklin and Flora Finch and others of the fine cast provide plenty of comedy in this first National picture which Benjamin Christensen directed. This comedy team is always to be relied upon and their experiences in a house that is reputed to be decidedly an unhealthy spot for people with weak nerves, are excruciating.

Thelma Todd, Eve Southern and Barbara Bedford are three beautiful girls who provide the love element as well as much of the mystery.

"Waterfront"

It would be hard to imagine a more ideal vehicle for the effervescent team of Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall, than the farce comedy, "Waterfront," which opens tonight at the Capitol. Miss Mackaill is cast as the laughter of a tugboat captain, who yearns for a life on the bounding main. Her father (Knute Ericson) has seen enough of the waterfront and wants to spend the rest of his life on a farm.

Everything is knocked into a cocked hat, however, when her sailor boy confides in her that his greatest ambition is to buy a farm and desert his ship.

To tell whether Miss Mackaill persuades her sweetheart and father or they convince her of the attractions of farming, would spoil an evening's entertainment, but what does happen will keep you both thrilled and laughing until the picture is finished.

Charles Johnstone, treasurer of the Power Corporation of Canada, and George R. Atchison, merchandise manager, after spending a week here and at Stewart on business in connection with the company's impending investments, sailed last night on the Prince George for Vancouver where they will spend some time before returning to their headquarters in Montreal.
