

Man in the Moon

Do you want to be an angel
And wear a placid smile
Or rather be a jolly tar
And walk around awhile?

Jake says those blue clothes do sure look real smart and his best girl is already getting cool toward him.

"For it's tar, tar, tar—Give me a jolly tar,"
That is what the girls all sing,
Can't you hear their voices ring?

That's the way to serve the King
Just be a jolly tar.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

May 29, 1919

The Anglican Synod, meeting here yesterday, passed resolutions endorsing pensions for mothers and collective bargaining for industrial employees.
Archdeacon Heathcote of Vancouver was the principal speaker at yesterday's session of the Synod.

Judge F. McE. Young delivered an inspiring address at a Board of Trade luncheon yesterday aboard the steamer Prince Rupert. M. P. McCaffery presided at the luncheon and a vote of thanks to Judge Young was passed on motion of H. S. Wallace and G. W. Nickerson.

Employees of the railway car shops here as well as local longshoremen are joining the Dominion wide labor strike.
