Departure of Skipper and Crew For Vancouver Indicates That Cardena Job Is to Be Done Here

On receipt of orders from head office in Vancouver, Capt. Andrew Johnstone, Pilot Ernest Sheppard and some twenty other members of the crew of the Union steamer Cardena, which was wrecked last Friday night on Village Island in the Skeena River, sailed for the south on the company's relief steamer Venture early this morning. Second Officer John Mercer was left to stand by the ship, which is now on the pontoons at the drydock, and Chief Engineer Logan and other members of the engineering staff are also remaining.

Departure of the navigating and deck staff of the Cardena for Vancouver indicates that it is very probable the repair job will be carried out here. Had it been intended to merely patch the vessel up temporarily here and then steam her to Vancouver, the crew would not have been ordered to leave.

Definite decision as to the repair of the vessel will, however, not be made until underwriters' and owners' officials, who are expected to arrive from Vancouver tomorrow afternoon, have made their inspection. Officials expected include T. C. Workman, surveyor of the London Salvage Association, and G. H. Foster, marine superintendent of the Union Steamship Co.

The Cardena job will be quite an extensive one and will probably take about a month's time. A new stem post will have to be put in and some fifteen or twenty plates will have to be replaced as well as general reconditioning. On completion of the work, officers and crew of the vessel will return here to take over the ship.

It is suggested that damage to the Cardena may total nearly $20,000.

Colonel Cantley was then escorted to the house of assembly and welcomed by Hon. J. P. Hand, O.B.E. The Canadian member of parliament followed the proceedings with keen interest from a seat next to the speaker.

Objection Voiced Sending Women Convicts Kingston

NANAIMO, Dec. 28.—The local Council of Women protests by resolution against the practice of sending women "forthwith" to Kingston penitentiary, when a penitentiary sentence is imposed. Such practice is, in the opinion of this council, needlessly cruel and harsh and removes prisoners from the possibility of occasional contacts with their family, and thereby doubly increasing their punishment and distress and driving them to despair.

Male convicts are not under this disability (two-year term). Therefore, says the council, these sentences appear to border on discrimination as between the sexes.

Nova Scotia Is Forging Ahead

Coal and Steel Output Show Marked Increases Over Previous Years

HALIFAX, Dec. 28: — Increases in production by Nova Scotia mines and allied industries, representing many millions of dollars return in capital invested and in wages paid to workmen of the province are shown in a statement from the Department of Public Works and Mines. Outstanding among the industries to show increased activity during the last four years were coal mining and steel maunfacture. A total of 3,238,321 tons of coal were raised from the collieries in 1925, while the output during the last year totalled 6,339,492 tons.

Steel ingots turned out in 1925 weighed 189,283 tons. A year later the total for twelve months was 308,012 while in 1927 it was 320,466 tons; in 1928, 410,699 tons. In 1929 it reached the unsurpassed total of 450,248 tons. Turning out 41,000 tons of steel rails in 1925, the mills in 1929 manufactured 157,972 tons, an advance of nearly 9,000 tons over 1928; 36,000 tons over 1927 and 59,000 over 1926. Increases also were shown in the output of steel wire, though they were smaller. Pig iron from blast furnaces totalled 371,162. In 1925 the amount was 140,283 tons.

Mae Thompson Weds In South

Well-Known Local Girl Became Bride at Ceremony in Seattle Christmas Eve

A marriage of much local interest took place in Seattle at noon on Christmas Eve when Miss Mae Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson of this city, became the bride of Patrick Partridge of Seattle. They are taking up residence in Seattle, where Mr. Partridge follows the business of a barber.

The bride, who left Prince Rupert about a year ago, had been a member of the staff of the B. C. Butchers and Grocers. She was active in athletic affairs and was a member of the girls' drill team as well as being a well known basketball player. She will have the hearty best wishes of many local friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Partridge expect to pay a visit to this city early next year.

Lost To Huffy Griffiths in New York Last Night by Large Margin of Points

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Tuffy Griffiths of Sioux City battered Johnny Risko of Cleveland to win a decisive ten-round victory in a heavyweight feature at Madison Square Garden last night. Griffiths failed to score any knockdowns but won by a large margin of points, frequently staggering Risko with rights to the head.

Griffiths is now in line for a bout with Jack Sharkey in February at Miami, Fla.

Message of Optimism Given To Newspapermen by C. N. R. Chief; Much Work Is Planned

OTTAWA, Dec. 28.—That the Canadian National Railways would go ahead with the program of betterments and extensions was the assurance given by the president, Sir Henry Thornton, to a party of newspapermen here on Friday.

"This is no time to take to one's heels. It is no time to shout pessimism, but it is a time to be prudently courageous," Sir Henry said. His company had embarked on new works, he explained, because they were needed in order that it might better fulfil its transportation responsibilities to the people of the country. These would be gone ahead with and the company would continue to do its utmost to give employees work. He did not see any reason for anxiety.

Practising Lawyer And Mother Alberta Woman Very Busy

EDMONTON, Dec. 28.—One of the busiest women in Alberta is Mrs. J. P. Ferguson of Trochu. She is a practising lawyer—a partner in her husband's law firm at Trochu, she is the mother of two young children, and she is the new district director of the 106 women's institutes of central Alberta.

This latter position is far from being a sinecure. Two months after her election to this office she was launched into a campign of work—a speaking itinerary in which she had to visit, during the ensuing month, 14 constituency conferences, at which she had to answer dozens of questions, and generally conduct round-table discussion and clear up institute difficulties.

This meant travelling by rail and car of over 1500 miles. Mrs. Ferguson drove most of this distance, sometimes making 50 miles per hour on "roads like glass" or creeping along over "rough wash boards."

Is Following Up Prohibition Move

James Lewis, which searched for the Union P. on Thursday afternoon, passed outside of Lewis Island and, therefore, missed her.

APPROPRIATE

Young Jack, like most children, was in the habit of asking questions. His worthy thirst of knowledge, however, produced unworthy thoughts in the mind of his harassed mother. So whilst reading one day he came across a word "Transatlantic."

"Mother what does Transatlantic mean?"

"Across the Atlantic, of course and don't bother me."

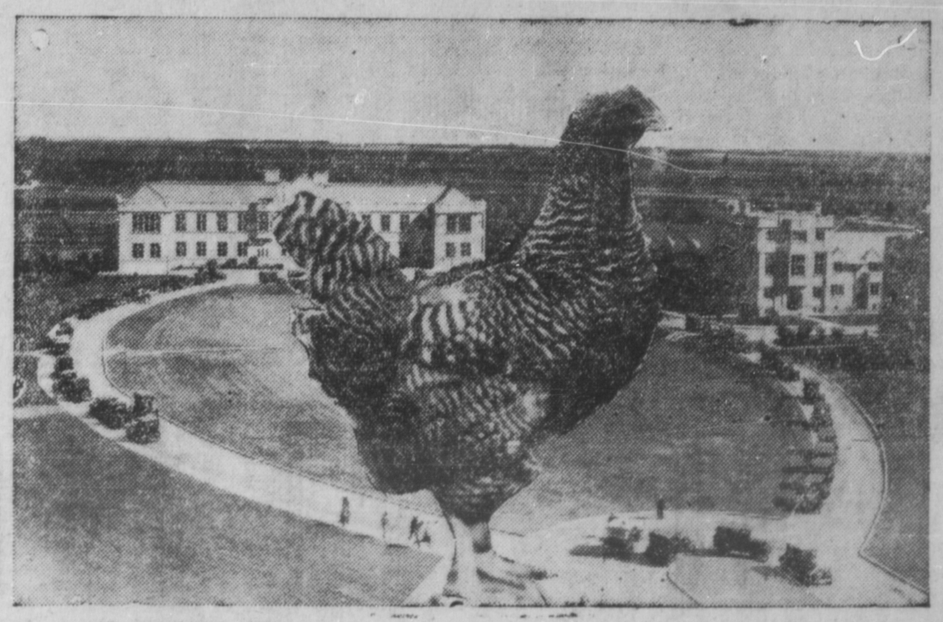

"Does 'trans' always mean across, mother?"

"I suppose it does, and do stop worrying me with questions."

"Then, I suppose transparent means a cross parent, like you now, mother?"

Toil, feel, think, hope. A man is sure to dream enough before he dies without making arrangements for the purpose.—John Sterling.

DECISION RESERVED

As to Whether Clergyman Is to Be Committed For Trial On Manslaughter Charge

VICTORIA, Dec. 28.—After hearing of evidence and argument in the preliminary hearing, Magistrate George Jay reserved until next Monday his decision as to whether or not he shall commit for trial Rev. Samuel Lundie on a charge of manslaughter arising out of the death on November 18 of Louis Godtel in a hunting tragedy. The police are prosecuting in the case and H. A. McLean, K.C., is acting as counsel for Lundie.

Lundie, taking the stand, testified that he was a minister of the Presbyterian Church since 1901 and had had a charge at Sooke since seven years ago. He had been accustomed to the use of firearms. He had shot his first deer in 1912 and hunted more or less ever since.

Continuing, witness said:

"On November 18, I went to Mr. Godtel's house. I asked him if he wished to go hunting. After talking it over we set out. When we got to the mountain and were going up the next rise, he suggested that we separate, he going to the right to some rocks and I going to the left toward some other rocks."

Replying to other questions, witness said that Godtel made the suggestion to separate, not witness. Witness did not deviate from the line of advance planned for him. Mr. Lundie then told of the fatal event:

"As I went off after we separated, I saw him 200 yards on his way. When I came up, going to my rocks, I saw a movement in thick broom. I could not imagine he could get there in that time, and was fully convinced it was a deer. The distance would be about thirty yards. I thought the deer was right under the broom. It was a likely place for deer.

"Godtel did not have on any colored clothes that would indicate that it was a man. He must have gone on all fours under the thick upper part of the broom.

"When I shot I went up expecting to see a deer. I was horrified to find that it was Godtel."

Cross-Examined

Cross-examined by Corporal Harvey, witness said that when he went hunting with Godtel he knew that Godtel had clothes of no distinctive color. He himself had on clothes of no distinctive color. He was less careful to see what he was shooting than he would have been if does had not been in season, as he would then have looked to see that it was a buck. He could not get a clear vision of the object, but only saw a movement. If Godtel had been walking erect, he would probably have carried his rifle above his head to clear the broom, and witness would have seen that.

NO CABINET STATEMENT

Premier King Had Nothing to Say Following Meeting of Ministers Yesterday

OTTAWA, Dec. 28:—Friday's meeting of the cabinet brought no statement with respect to cabinet or other appointments. At the conclusion of the first meeting to be held since the return of Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, from London, Premier King said that he had nothing to announce.

Women Left In Bad Plights by Estate Neglect

VANCOUVER, Dec. 28.—The plight in which many women are left when their husbands die leaving estates neglected legally was remarked on by Judge Gregory in a case recently. Though he had much sympathy with the plaintiff he was forced to deny her claim. "I am sure if the plaintiff's husband could come back from the grave he would not leave his affairs in this shape." The widow sued to establish an agreement $4400 in arrears; the agreement said to have been made would have entitled her to $200 a month. The defendent was her stepson.

Turkey Starts Gold Stampede

Nugget Valued at $2.50 Was Found In Bird at Sault St. Marie

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Dec. 28.—A gold rush has started on St. Joe's Island and a dressed turkey spread the tip. It all started when a prominent merchant donated a number of turkeys for Christmas for deserving families.

Mrs. J. B. Hammond, who dressed a turkey presented by the merchant, found in its crop a gold nugget valued at $2.50. The turkey was one of a shipment from St. Joe's Island and last night local prospectors were busy trying to find out just which farm this particular bird came from.

U. S. Coastguard Cutter Northland Had Busy Season

OAKLAND, Dec. 28.—The coastguard cutter Northland, displaying a log filled with accounts of various adventures during her six months cruise of Arctic waters, is back in winter anchorage here. She returned recently from her seasonal trip to the Arctic which required 14,000 miles of sailing.

Among the achievements of the vessel's crew, outside of regular duties were: Rescue of 15 shipwrecked sailors from the Norwegian ship Elisif. They were stranded on the Siberian coast. Rescue of two soldiers of the Russian white army, starving on bleak Diomede island in the Bering Sea; rescue of the disabled walrus hunting schooner Dorothy, which was towed 100 miles to port for repairs; rescue of Trader Jim Allen and some Eskimos starving at Wainwright. They were taken to walrus fields, where the Eskimos launched skin boats and shot walrus for food; rescue of the pilot Bennett of an Alaskan commercial aeroplane service, forced down on an island.
