New Conditions Fish Licensing Being Discussed

t Known Yet What Will Be Status of Fishermen Under New Plan

Rupert are wondering if they are affected by the recent ruling of the privy council in regard to the fisheries. It was partly at the instance of Japanese fishermen that the law was challenged, as they against under the legislation which provided for an arbitrary reduction of the number of Japanese licenses. What people are now censing fishermen will remain as formerly or the right of control be passed to the province.

The Vancouver Sun discusses the situation as follows: In view of the unanimity of the Canadian courts, it was generally expected that the Privy Council would sustain them in their judgment that the issuing of canner licenses was a provincial and not a dominion right. The decision validates the lichas been exercised for 20 years. and, what is, perhaps, more important, such regulations as the province may from time to time tion of fish when caught. While the Dominion government, recognizing the probability that urisdiction would, in the end, be lenied, has put into force probitions suggested by the provinia' government, notably that preventing the taking of herring for the purposes of reduction plants

From a practical standpoint it is probably better that the canneries should come under the contoo' of an authority on the spot. nere were manifest disadvanages in the regulating of an important industry at a distance of miles. In this connection the Hon. S. L. Howe's proposal to call the affected interests into conference as soon as the text of the udgment is received is to be com-
