

London Councillor Has Six Children in Medical Game

(By The Canadian Press) LONDON, Sept. 17.—Of the six children of Councillor J. T. Hall, Mayor of Lewisham, the borough covering a large slice of Southeastern area of London, six have qualified for the medical profession. His five sons are all doctors, and his daughter, Miss Elsie Hallinan, has just become qualified. All the sons served with the Royal Army Medical Corps in France.

Why so many of the children should adopt the medical profession is a circumstance which Mr. and Mrs. Hallinan are unable to explain. No other members of the family, either in the present or the two preceding generations, have been associated with medicine.

Man in the Moon

Many an article looks well in a show window but in the home looks like a revivalist in heaven.

It's easy to hire muscle but you have to use your own head, mostly.

Success is built on knowledge by means of energy.

Jake says he calls his girl "Hinges" because she's something to adore.

Methusalem ate what he found on his plate. And never as people do now did he note the amount or the calories count. He ate because it was chow.

He was not upset when at dinner he ate an old-fashioned roast or a pie. Or considered the lack of granular fat, or were there some vitamins shy.

He cheerfully chewed every species of food. Untroubled by worries or fears lest his health might be hurt by a fancy dessert, and he lived over nine hundred years.

In spite of boisterous weather, the first day of the Prince Rupert Exhibition was a success, there being 750 admissions to the building. It is hoped weather will moderate sufficiently to permit of the playing of the Anyox-Prince Rupert baseball series and other sport events.

Speaking in the House of Commons, Col. C. W. Peck V.C., M.P. urged the ratification of the Peace Treaty and eulogized Sir Wilfrid Laurier for his efforts in connection therewith.

A local Japanese was admitted to the Prince Rupert General Hospital last night with a knife wound in the back, the result of a stabbing affray.
