Derby at Epsom Today was Won by Outsider and None of the Favorites Was in Money

Third Horse Was a Fifty to One Shot; Estimated That One Hundred Millions Changed Hands on Result in Different Parts of World

EPSOM DOWNS, June 5.—Once more the dopesters were all astray in regard to the Derby, for Trigo, owned by W. Barnett, a 33 to 1 outsider, romped home with the honors and the big money and the backers of the favorites fell down badly.

The second horse was Lord Woolavington's Walter Gay and the third Sommerville Tattersall's Brienz. Twenty-five horses ran.

Trigo is the son of Blandford and Athasia and won by one and a half lengths. It is as game a colt as ever tore down the slope of the straightway to register one of the many upsets recorded in the long history of the famous classic.

Literally millions of dollars changed hands throughout the entire world, where wagering and participation in the mammoth sweepstakes is believed to have totalled nearly $100,000,000.

Thousands of eyes searched in vain in the final rush for such popular favorites as Cragadour, Mr. Jinks and Hunter's Moon. Of the three show horses, Walter Gay was best liked in the pre-race speculation. Brienz was held at extremely long odds, 50 to 1.

Trigo's owner is an Irish breeder. His trainer is R. C. Dawson, also an Irishman. The jockey was J. Marshall Young, an Epsom lad.

The judges placed Lord Derby's Hunter's Moon fourth and W. M. Singer's Engarde fifth.

HALF MILLION ACRES OF LAND WILL BE SOLD

Provincial Government to Market It as Quickly as Possible From Smithers to Prince George

VICTORIA, June 5.—British Columbia has almost half a million acres of good agricultural land to sell along the northern line of the Canadian National between Prince George and Smithers, Hon. William Atkinson stated today. He said the Government would consider immediately systematic efforts to dispose of the land as rapidly as possible to settlers. Mr. Atkinson explained that a great part of the land had reverted to the Crown for non-payment of taxes. Some of it was exceedingly choice from an agricultural standpoint. It is expected that the areas will be offered at attractive prices.

Light Docket Before Assize Court Which Opened Here this Morning, New Judge on Bench

Only one criminal case is before the assize court which opened here this morning, Mr. Justice Fisher, the newly appointed judge from Fernie, presiding. He congratulated the city and district on the small list, charged the grand jury and set the civil cases which are to be tried during the week.

One pleasing little event was that which took place immediately the judge took his seat on the bench when L. W. Patmore, for the local Bar Association, congratulated His Lordship on his elevation to the bench. He said he had been known to many of them for the past quarter of a century and he felt sure the high ideals which had actuated him in his profession at Fernie would be carried into his work on the bench.

The judge replied that he appreciated the words of welcome. He said that as a lawyer he was often thankful to think there was an appeal court and doubtless some of them would feel the same after his decisions in spite of his best efforts. Law was not an exact science, but it was founded on human nature. It had been so well carried out in the province that he felt nervous in following his predecessors. He assured them, however, that his work would be done faithfully and trusted it would be well done.

The case which went before the grand jury today was that of alleged rape on a ten-year-old native girl by a native trapper about fifty miles north of Bella Bella. A. M. Johnson, K.C., is prosecuting for the Crown and Peter Manson interpreter. The grand jury follows: Verner Franklin Ableson, druggist; Ernest Sherring Allistone, clerk; Nelson Almen, carpenter; George Hickox Arnold, broker; George Henry Arnott, salesman;

Prince Henry was Thrown from Horse Broke Collar Bone

Was Playing Polo When Pony Slipped and Fell On Its Side and Prince Struck on Point of Shoulder

VANCOUVER, June 5.—Prince Henry, visiting here en route to England from Japan, suffered a fracture of the collar bone when his pony slipped and fell with him at Brighouse Park yesterday afternoon during a game of polo. He was brought to the city and given medical attention.

The prince made light of the accident and assured everyone around that the injury was slight. It happened in the eighth chukker when the prince's team was three points up in the score. Swinging in on the ball the pony slipped and fell flat on its side. The prince was thrown on the point of his shoulder and the bone snapped.

All plans for the royal visit here were set aside and the plan to leave for Alberta Friday may have to be changed.

Col. J. P. Fell, one of the players on the opposition team, who was near when the accident happened, said the prince had been giving an excellent display of horsemanship and proved himself an able polo player. He was injured through no fault of his own.

Physicians attending the Duke of Gloucester issued the following statement today: "His Royal Highness was uncomfortable during the night, but is resting more comfortably now. The worst of his distress is over and his condition is good. The fracture is in perfect position." The bulletin was signed by Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Dr. Frank P. Patterson and Dr. W. L. Graham.

OTTAWA, June 5.—For the first time in the history of the Canadian Parliament, a motion was made in the House of Commons yesterday to clear the galleries. The motion came from J. S. Woodsworth, Labor member for Winnipeg, on the second reading of a divorce measure during the private members' hour. The motion was voted down.

Mr. Woodsworth, in making the motion, said he had read the evidence in this particular case and could find no corroboration of the charges made. He desired to discuss the evidence and for this reason wanted the galleries cleared.

SASKATCHEWAN ELECTION BEING HELD TOMORROW

Conservatives Trying to Make Inroads on Almost Solid Liberal Government

REGINA, Sask., June 5.—Following a strenuous campaign waged by Liberal, Conservative, Progressive and Independent forces, Saskatchewan electors today are considering the issues preparatory to casting their ballots tomorrow.

For sixty-one of the sixty-three seats in the Legislature the voters will select from a list of 140 candidates composed of 60 Liberals, 45 Conservatives, 19 Progressives and 15 Independents and one Laborite.

The campaign as conducted by the three main parties—Liberals, Conservatives and Progressives—has not produced any outstanding issues. The Conservatives, pointing to the fact that the Liberal Party has been in power since Saskatchewan became a province, have urged that "it is time for a change." They charged that the Government had made unfair use of the civil service as a political weapon, and launched heated attacks upon many of the Government policies. On the other hand, (Continued on page three.)
