THE DAILY NEWS PRINCE RUPERT - BRITISH COLUMBIA

Published Every Afternoon, Except Sunday, by Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue H. F. PULLEN - - - Managing-Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

City delivery, by mail or carrier, yearly period, paid in advance $5.00 By mail to all parts of Northern and Central British Columbia, paid in advance for yearly period ...... 3.00

Transient display advertising, per inch, per insertion ...... 1.40 Transient advertising on front page, per inch ...... 2.80

DAILY EDITION

Thursday, April 18, 1929

SIR CLIFFORD SIFTON

When Sir Clifford Sifton died yesterday there passed from this world one of Canada's great men. He was not popular throughout the country for several reasons. Liberals did not like him because he bolted their ticket over the reciprocity arrangement with the United States and worked against his old chief, Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Conservatives did not like him because he had a newspaper at independent attitude on the big questions of the day. Labor hostess and two members of the committee at the ball. did not like him because he accumulated wealth.

Sir Clifford was the father of unrestricted immigration and it is claimed that he made money from the filling up of many with a way with the Canadian prairies. At any rate, it can be said that WILLIE during the time of that immigration flow into Canada, the country was prosperous and has benefited since as a result. It led to a few problems, such as that of dealing with the Doukhobors and Galicians, but they were minor troubles affecting only very small areas. Children of most Speaker Urges in Address Cultiof the immigrants of that day are now good Canadians imbued with the Canadian spirit.

Sir Clifford was an eloquent speaker, a strong personality, had a keen business sense and enjoyed spending on horses some of the money he made in other directions. While it is true that he made money for himself, he also worked throughout for the benefit of the country. A few more such able citizens would be a great advantage.

THE STEWART RAILWAY.

The report of the Northeastern Railway Company which has a short line at Stewart and which it is planned to extend to the interior, was read with great interest by many people here. All Prince Rupert people are interested in that line and would like to see it succeed. This is a den Street School which touched huge country and transportation is its greatest need, a responsive chord in the aud-While doubts have been expressed of the intention of the lence. present company to build the line, any effort at railway The speaker was Rev. A. Wilbuilding is always hailed with delight by the districts likely son, B.A. of the United Church, to be affected by it. Stewart is particularly pleased at the and his subject was, "Teaching city effort and is ready to back the company almost to a man. We hope it will be a success. At any rate, the company will probably spend some money in the district and that will benefit some of the people.

DAY OF EXPANSION

This is a day of expansion. The C. P. R. is just issuing towards the proper way to give expression to this innate fighta large block of new stock which will be spent in extending ing instinct," said Mr. Wilson their lines. The C. N. R. is completing the line to Hudson "This instinct is in the young in Bay and other branches. The two big railways are con- varying degrees and while it does sidering a scheme for the opening up of the Peace River not always find expression in country and providing a western and southern outlet. fighting yet most boys like to Power concerns are extending their operations in order to read about fighting or watch provide for the development which is resident to fighting pictures on the screen. provide for the development which is going on. Canada is growing.

The only fly in the ointment is the slow growth made by stories and now since the war, had be of Canadian cities. The Prince Rupert. The city has not as yet benefited to any stories based upon fights on land, great extent from the general prosperity. Today we are sea, under the sea and in the air publishing the first article on what would most benefit to this is the fact that the nanorthern and central British Columbia. We hope to have tions of the world are rapidly a good many more sent in. If anyone has a brain wave, moving toward universal peace here is a good opportunity to give expression to it. If it and have agreed to abolish war Canada, a wonderful democracy will benefit the country, let us all hear it.

UNDENOMINATIONAL CHURCH

Yesterday we published a report on the opening of the new undenominational church at Usk. It is a community flicts scholars are asking how church for the use of the community and not of a denomin- people lived-in those, times, and ation. That seems a reasonable method of catering to the what were their springs of conreligious needs of small communities. Usk will be watched duct," the speaker continued. with interest to note what use they make of their new "How are children to interpret building.

WHAT WOULD BE THE BEST MEANS TO ADVANCE INTERESTS OF NORTHERN AND CENTRAL B. C.? PRIZES ARE OFFERED

The Daily News invites suggestions as to the best means of advancing the interests of northern and central British Columbia. As a recognition of our interest in the subject, we offer three prizes for the best suggestions put forward in a brief newspaper article not to exceed 500 words. First prize, $5; second prize, a year's subscription to The Daily News; and, third, six months' subscription to the paper.

A school boy or school girl is just as likely to win the prize for this as is a grownup. Write and mail addressed: Contest Editor, The Dairy News, Prince Rupert, B.C.

H. R. H. AT EMPIRE FELLOWSHIP BALL

The Prince of Wales attended the Empire fellowship. Winnipeg, the Free Press, which consistently advocated ball at the house of Mrs. Simon Hartog, 46 Upper Gros-Liberal principles, although, at the same time, taking an venor Street, London. The prince is here shown with the

vation of Natural Instinct Along Right Lines

2-81-3-1 1 1 1 1 1 F 1 3 SNOBBERY OBJECTIONABLE

ing Instinct be Used to Meet Ringing Challenges

An address of great interes delivered last evening the Parent Teachers' Association. at their regular meeting in Bor-

the Youth How to Make Use of the Fighting Instinct." "Nothing is more evident than that the lighting instinct is strongly ingrained in the young; and therefore one of our greatest problems today is to guide the youth Boys' literature has always contained a great many fighting as an instrument of national

"The subject of history is also changing. Instead of dwelling on these facts and reconcile their GOOD REASON literature with the changing deals of history and the changed atmosphere of a world now striving for peace and brotherhood? "Yet is was a splendid thing that the rising generation was strongly endowed with this fighting instinct. It was a challenge to the home, the school and the church to see that our young people put this important instinct vanced from stage to stage un- morrow night. til now the great nations had seriously taken up this very chalthis force towards endeavors for the well being of the human race. They saw clearly now as Napoleon saw and remarked many years ago. 'The more study the world the more I realize that force can achieve nothing enduring."

Play the Game

The speaker dwelt upon different ways in which this fighting instinct could be expressed. Boxing for physical culture was good but the prize fight has a harmful influence upon youth. Friendly contests in organized games such as the schools conducted was splendid and taught the youth to ever play the game fairly. But there were greater op-Rev. A. Wilson Urges That Fight- portunities for service in which the fighting instinct was needed. "Our own country provides many and wonderful opportunities, and gives a thousand challenges to youth in the domains of agriculture, industry, science, engineering, medical and surgical science. the wiping out of disease, ignorance, and poverty. Our own city of Prince Rupert was a splendid example of how the fighting instinct properly directed has overcome many physical obstacles in the planning and building of our

> "Moral and spiritual influences had been won also but a great deal still remained to be accomplished along these lines. "Some people had allowed the fighting instinct to lapse, had failed to make a right use of their leisure and neglected their reading and ignorance had grown up in spite of the splendid school system. Snobbery had also to be fought against. Snobbery had not men all left behind in the old land: One has only to look at the front pares of the society supplement of the Vancouver papers to see that mobbery and class-condonesies have a strong root in routh must be taught that snobery springs from shallowness of mind. The true aristocrat is not of this type. He is truly cultured and loves his fellow man. "We have a great heritage in and our young people must be so trained that they will use every ounce of this splendid fighting spirit to meet successfully the innumerable ringing challenges which this new land and the new world sends out to its youth," Mr. Wilson concluded.

Teacher - Which is farther away, Africa or the moon? Small Boy-Africa.

"Africa? What makes you think that ?" "'Cause we can see the moon and we can't see Africa."-The to the very highest use. They You'll be sorry if you miss it. should see how humanity has ad- Gyro Hoe-Down, Auditorium, to-lenge and had agreed to divert Colds Checked By modern vaporizing ointment- just rub on

If Father would take his turn at the tub just one time, oldfashioned washday would vanish from your home forever. He would insist, for YOUR sake, and for the general good of the family, that you let us shoulder the woes of washday. That's our job, you know. We're organized for it. We can do the work more quickly and economically than you can. And, you may doubt this, but it's a fact that we'll do it BETTER, too. That's because we have facilities no home laundry could possibly have.

> We Offer Services for Every FAMILY BUDGET

The Canadian team Laundry

DROUD of its past record, alert to present opportunities and mindful of the standards it has constantly upheld, the Bank of Montreal is now entering upon the one hundred and twelfth year of its service.

To-day in resources and organization the Bank is better equipped than at any other period in its history to render prompt and efficient service to the people and business interests of Canada.

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established 1817

TOTAL ASSETS IN EXCESS OF $870,000,000

Prince Rupert Branch: A. H. CARSON, Manager.

