NEXTYEAR

Cruiser Race From Seattle to Prince Rupert is Definitely Decided Upon

The board of directors of the Seattle Yacht Club has definitely decided to stage a long distance race for power cruisers next sum-mer starting at Seattle and finishing at Prince Rupert. This will take the place of an Olympia to Juneau capital - to - capital race such as have been held this year and last and which will again be held in 1931, according to present plans. The suggestion that the 1930 race be from Seattle to Prince Rupert was put forward originally ry Richard Froboese, owner of the first over-all winning boat, Boinder, in the Olympia-Juneau race his summer.

It is planned to hold next year's ace in the month of June and he expectation is that boats will e entered from Yacht Clubs ulong the coast as, far south as Talifornia, the hope being that Prince Rupert will also be repre-
