Man in the Moon

What was the use of Eve eating an apple a day. There were no doctors to keep away in those days.

I never could understand why people wanted houses with lots of rooms in them. I never can find anything even in our two.

Faith is what makes a woman know that if it's something her husband suggests it must be wrong.

There are plenty of people who are fond of work and will do it if they ever get time.

I met a man on Saturday who said he had yet to be convinced that this was Prince Rupert. It was not a bit like what he had heard Vancouver people say it was.

Holy Zooks, it sure was snappy this morning! I hate to have to get up before breakfast in such weather as this.

I have seen the weather snappy
I've seen it beastly cold
But it's never reached the zero point
Since I've been growing old.

Ten above this morning! Well, that's not so very cold compared with forty below on the prairies sometimes. After forty most of the thermometers freeze.

They do tell me that some of the youngsters were out skating yesterday and one of them got a bump.

Did you ever go out skating
When the air was good and snappy
And your blood was all a-tingling
And the crowd was feeling happy?

Did you ever don your skating gear
And zip proudly along
So fine your skates just left the ice
Mid the titters of the throng?

Did you ever slowly pick yourself
From off the crazy ice
And mutter words and sentiments
That some folks say ain't nice?

Well, that's what happened yesterday
But I'm not telling who
For you'd be pretty much surprised
If all the yarn you knew.

There are just three kinds of mornings when I hate to get up. I like to lie in bed when it's warm and comfortable and I like to hear the others stirring around when it's just medium warm and medium cold, but when the boards outside snap with frost I simply can't get up.

Heighho, now that the Burns celebration is over and the haggis is all drunk up, what'll we do for another celebration?

One of those Wainwright buffalo robes might be all right a morning like this.

Anybody feeling very cold and worried over the weather should drop down and see old man Goldbloom for a few minutes. I bet he'd fix 'em up with a bear or a skunk or a seal skin that'd make hearts glad and keep 'em in the pink.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 28, 1919

"No man is greater than the mother who bore him. There is nothing that can add to happiness like the wonderful smile of a woman. Women are the bulwarks of the Empire," declared J. C. Brady, high school principal, in offering the toast to "The Lassies" at the Burns' banquet.

W. F. Bell, acting superintendent of telegraphs for the western division of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, is a visitor in the city on official business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lindstrom and family of Remo have arrived here to take up residence for the winter.
