ARE BEATING

NEW YORK, N.Y., July 22. The toms toms which have been Germany's sensational young entry the ring of authenticity.

They must have an ominous sound to the ears of Jack Sharkey, the Boston bomber.

The lithe and limber Teuton rocketed up from nowhere to smash Johnny Risko, the Cleveland shock absorber, and step out overnight as the reigning sensaqualities.

iron man from the Pyrenees of is room for improvement. Spain-Paulino Uzcudun.

Only one obstacle bars the path of the "schlging" Teuton. The definite barrier is Jack Sharkey, SPEED RECORD who will attempt to block the Schmeling road to the heights in the Yankee Stadium in September.

On the records of the past year or so, it seems as though Schmel- Death of Ray Keech Gives Seting has just what it takes to wipe Sharkey from the ranks of contenders. The Boston tar seems never to have regained his best Dempsey blasted him from the road to another shot at the erudite, Tunney. Sharkey has been an inand-outer. His last effort, a close decision victory over Young Stribling in Miami Beach, Fla., was a decidedly "out" effort.

The young German, riding the crest of rising might, will be the favorite of most of the critics to lay his dazzling right hand sharply and frequently on the chin of the Boston battler, enough times, in fact, to remove Sharkey from the picture in abrupt order.

Miss Palmer Chosen Secretary in Place of Eddie Smith and Two Names Added to Executive ert Tennis Club last night, Carl will supply the next threat Brand presiding, the resignation against the world's record.

It was proposed that a series of ders. dances be held during the fall to One of the outstanding figures Fish Pier with a rubber band augment the funds with the view in high speed circles and one encircling its body, just below They made numerous turns, and admire." wooden courts with cement courts. title is Capt. Malcolm Campbell There were many theories condouble back on their course. Their be admired than liked. But that statuary, the whole immersed in These will cost between $3000 and of England, who set the former cerning how the band got around progress was moderate, however, doesn't alter the fact that I like a steady growth in the $4000. As the old courts are record of 206.95 miles an hour the fish. One solution, as reas- and she knew Paul would have no you a lot. You were too shrewd What a curious light it was, so of water power in Canada about done for action must be here February 19, 1928. Since he onable as any other advanced, difficulty keeping them in sight. To accept me on faith. And so, smooth and even, so soothing to shown by the facts that the taken soon.

Thirteen Runs to Three and Kept Lead

major leagues yesterday and in grave's record. score was:

Brooklyn 3 ,Pittsburgh 13,

GOOD WORK DONE ON THE BASEBALL GROUND well of Miami.

The condition of the Gyro base- COLD WAS CAUSE OF ball park on the corner of Sixth Avenue and McBride Street is the subject of much favorable comment. The place is now in good PARIS, July 23:-A severe trophy in the 'round England air announced. credit to the club.

Sport Chat

One Inch to Spare

When two runners are only one inch apart, it seems doubtful if it should not have been declared a tie. Percy Williams beat the Negro sprinter from Michigan beating for Der Maxie Schmeling, University by one inch. It seems in the heavyweight lists, now have as if Eddie was hardly to blame for disputing the decision. Much as we all admire Williams and like to see him win, the margin is scarcely enough and might well be under dispute.

Model Yacht Racing

It is understood there is tion of the heavyweights. Still movement afoot to form a model there were critics who had to be yacht racing association which convinced that Schmeling, admit- will have charge of such races as the Bremen. tedly a clever, cagy, stunning that put on Saturday off the puncher, also possessed staying Drydock. If this is done it will probably be arranged that yachts monstrate that she is capable of him to trail Miss Conway's car. Now he has proven that. No will be built of similar size so more could be asked of any 23- that the race will prove more year-old heavyweight than that he interesting than the opening one. tear into small pieces that burly It was a worthy effort but there back to U.S. Ambitions But Others May Try

DAYTONA BEACH, July 23:fighting form since the night The recent death of Ray Keech at the Altoona track may eliminate America's hope of regaining the world's straightaway speed record at the annual international speed classic here next win-

> Speed followers here see hour which he set on the ocean The Station scored three in the speedway here last spring "probably will stand for at least two in the fourth. The Drydock got

At the time of his death Keech ninth. was the only American driver who had publicly announced the intertion of coming here next winter for an attempt to bring the high speed racing laurels back to the United States. He had planned to build a machine cap-IVLIV UUUILLD, able of developing 250 miles an

With Segrave's announcement that he definitely has retired from the automobile racing game there has been considerable spe-culation at this scene of super-At a meeting of the Prince Rup- speed triumphs as to just who of Eddie Smith as secretary was Reports have been received that BOSTON, July 23:-It requires accepted and Miss Margaret Pal- several Americans and a few no imagination to stretch this mer was appointed secretary in his foreign drivers are planning to story. It is both fishy and rubplace. Also the executive was build high speed cars but so far bery. strengthened by the addition of no announcement has been made The Boston fish trade was con-Messrs. Currie and P. Black. | concerning definite title conten- fronted with a mystery when > failed to shatter Seagrave's record had it that the band was thrown Soon the motion of the car told while dressing, you got in course the eyes! It was soothing to ner erage annual rate of increase after several attempts in South or dropped overboard from some her they were crossing a bridge. with the young hero. That was a nerves as well, She thought after development since 1925 has be his plans. | ming along, pushed its head Conway. The woman's eyes were "Unnecessary?"

J. M. White of Philadelphia, buil- firmly fastened around the der of the 36-cylinder Triplex broadest part of the fish. with which Keech established a Pittsburgh Smothered Brooklyn record here of 207.55 miles an hour on April 22, 1928. It was the same car in which Lee Bible, a Daytona Beach driver, rode to NEW YORK, July 23:-There his death on March 13, 1929, was only one game played in the while attempting to shatter Seit, Pittsburgh protected a scanty Herman A. Finche, St. Louis lead in the National League pen- inventor, is understood to be ex-, nant race by smothering the perimenting with a high speed Brooklyn Robins with a batting car equipped with a rotary motor. onslaught. The only other carded No ward has been received here, major game, Cleveland vs. Phila- however that he will enter it in delphia at Philadelphia was post- next winter's speed classic. Othponed because of rain. The only ers reported interested in the |construction of record contending machines are Jave Don, British driver; C. Villiers, English engineer; Harry Hartz, American speedway veteran, and J. L. Sock-

shape for the games with a proper cold and complications from race last year, again entered for backstop and the whole presents a which he has been suffering that coveted cup. The race took hero you commissioned to follow stops and look out. It might be finished appearance that is a caused Rene Lacoste to be left place on July 5, and the distance us." She gave a clear laugh that locked, of course. Or Miss Conoff the French Davis Cup team. | was approximately 1,000 miles. | yet had a trace of irony in it. "He way might be prepared against

England, U.S., France and Italy May Scramble For Honors Across Ocean

LONDON, July 23:-London newspapers this morning featured the new Atlantic speed record of the German Atlantic liner Bremen and predict that an international scramble for speed honors will follow almost immediately with Great Britain, United States, France and Italy, participating and Germany adding the Europa shortly which should do as well or better than

It is also expected that the Mauretania will attempt to better than she has produced yet. items are featured in the newspaper

CANADIAN NATIONAL BEATS ST. SAVIOURS EDMONTON YESTERDAY

EDMONTON, July 23. - The Canadian Nationals defeated the St. Saviours, B. C. champions, 4-2 last night, taking inter-provincial football round 9-3.

The Station lost their first game in the second half when they went down to the Drydock nine by a six to five count. This was a Keech's death as fulfillment of very tight game despite the rain a prediction made by Sir Henry making the ball feel about ten sent world record of 231 miles an pounds. The game went the full nine innings.

first, one in the second, and one four in the fifth and two in the

Station	Drydock
Styles
Mair	Howe
Thomas
Horton
H. Skattebol	Reid
B. Skattebol	McKenzie
Holtby	McFee
A. Skattebol	Palmer
McIntosh	Hedstrom

mackeral was brought in at the Africa last spring, however, he vessel, floated along on the surhas made no statement regarding face until the mackeral, swim- She glanced covertly at Miss though unnecessary." Another possible contender is through the elastic until it was

IN GREAT RACE

LACOSTE NOT PLAYING Captain Hope, famous British light-green eyes.

"We've left him far behind," she Adele's contemplative eyes fixed aviator who won the King George

Synopsis of Preceding Chapter

Adele Castle is on the way to visit a mysterious Dr. Moffett, accompanied by the equally mysterious Miss Conway, who has told her Virgil Ellsworth Castle, he office; the pursuit by the police of "Mr a crook who preys on the rich and then one-tenth of its value to charity.

INSTALLMENT TWO

The House of the Green Lights mysterious destination. Miss Con- been a trap." way leaned languidly back against the cushions and devoted herself! signed her she could not look me."

out great difficulty.

"Brooklyn," she thought.

half closed and her expression

Conway leaned forward and coming to you. Dr. Moffett will brought the speaking tube to her outline a certain proposition. You ear. Adele could not make out may accept it or reject it, or you the words that passed between the may ask time to think it over. You chauffeur and her companion, but will be perfectly safe."

Aedele knew they were leaving the from convinced.

were racing, with the engine pursuing Paul.

car fell into a more sedate rate "Can't you guess?"

faint, mocking suggestion in her why should he object to that?"

And then, quite suddenly, the ing?"

should have known that a taxi can't keep pace with this car." ugly aspects of a trap. She drew opened the door herself up and tried to look un- "Straight ahead, please," said vised Book of Common Prayer concerned. A dash of danger Miss Conway softly. sides, she might be able to help was willing to risk a lot. "Not afraid?" Miss Conway

"Not in the least."

"You trust me, don't you?" Adele merely smiled wisely.

bration the luxurious sedan swung to despise you. I would be de- agement, urged her forward down the street, picked up speed, spising you now if you had walked and rolled smoothly toward its blindfolded into what might have

"Well, isnt' it a trap?"

to a gold-tipped cigarette. Adele body's fool. I don't like to blush had slipped back into its socket. Out of the soft, green of was slightly disappointed to dis- with shame for my sex. Ever so Though she knew it was not yet tones that filled the room aver cover that the side windows were many pretty girls are imbeciles. heavily shaded and that from the You are one of the exceptions, and position her companion had as- that's why I like you. Do you like

The Locked Room

just such a move. Anyway, Adele decided to see her adventure through to the end. The car lapsed into a crawling pace, then stopped. Miss Conway straightened from her reclining position. The chauffeur was holding the door open. Adele stepped out and looked up and down a block of old dwellings, searching in vain for some outstanding mark by which she might later identify the locality. There were still hundreds of such blocks in Manhattan, despite the insolent crowding of the towering apartment buildings.

As if to assist her, the chauffeur took her arm and did not relinguish it until she had ascended half a dozen steps and stood before a door. It opened almost in-

Miss Conway gave her a gentle push from behind, and she en- bury, who approved the finding Adele's heart sank. The mag- tered. The hall was dark, and she nificent sedan was taking on the could not see the person who had

Adele conquered a misgiving on two occasions by Parliame her father, and to that end she and moved forward. The darkness and the strangeness of the house was a little disquieting, but she would not turn back now. With a little flutter at the throat she stopped before a door. It opened "Do you know, my dear, I rather quietly and mysteriously, Anothlike you." The woman regarded er little push from Miss Conway her with an amused expression, so slight and gentle that it might With searcely a sound or a vi- Before I saw you I was prepared have been a gesture of encour-

She walked in, advanced a few With a dull quavering cry steps, then stopped. She heard the stared about her again. door close behind her with a time she knew there had be "No, but I'm glad you are no- click which signified that a bolt no mistake. noon, the room was in total dark- had spoken. It was a deep, street ness. The windows, if there were rather pleasant voice, yet any, must be heavily shaded so was dimly aware of an unn as not to admit the faintest ray quality in it, as if the speak of light. She braced herself wished to disguise his nate against the gloom that pervaded manner of speech. the curious and depressing still- "Won't you be seated?" ness. She felt quite alone, and shee Mechanically she slipped wondered what had become of the seat beside her. The com Miss Conway.

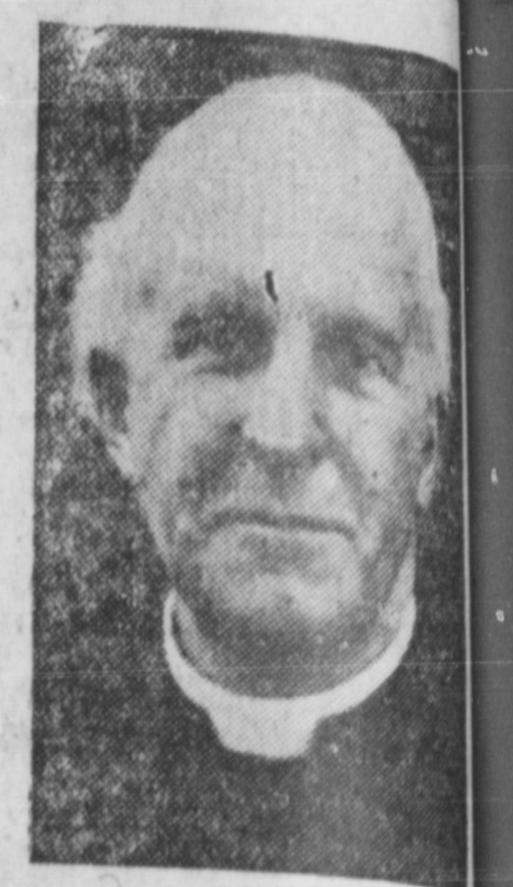

She waited tremulously. The becoming unbearable. But a stillness and the darkness grew out of the velvety green light oppressive. Merely to verify a figure emerged. It was a shade suspicion, she went back a few figure that seemed to blend i steps and tried the doorknob. As the verdant illumination on she had expected, the door was sides. She could scarcely locked. She shook off the vague tinguish the outlines, and dread which the discovery arous- face she could not see at all ed within her. She mustn't be a seemed to be screened behin fool, she told herself. She had soft emerald mist. Yet even walked into this with eyes wide dim and fragmentary open, and now--- snapped. A little click had soun- where she sat the blurred fig ded somewhere. The most cur- stopped and dropped into a chi ious light she had ever seen "Mind if I smoke, flooded the room-a green light Castle?" so soft and rich it made her "Not-not in the least," A think of velvet. And not only stammered. It was a little und that, but it was evenly distributny to hear herself reply to ted over the room, forming no question spoken by a man who shadows in the corners.

Emerald Light

She gazed about her in amaze- strained her eyes in the direct ment. The room was furnished in where he sat. The outliens of the fashion of a library, with figure were a trifle clearer no The blurred figure of a man stopped and dropped into a chair. long and well filled bookcases at but the face was still shroud three walls, a huge rosewood in what looked like a green in table in the center, easy chairs either forward or backward with- "No," said Adele rankly, "but with leather-covered upholstery, there are some things about you I a few rugs of soft Oriental hues. commendable precaution, even she had recovered from her 10.7 per cent and that the to amazement, that the room had a development now amounts to pleasant, friendly, welcoming as- installed turbine horse-power was uncertain in the dim light of "Oh, yes. Everything I told you the frosted electric bulb overhead. was true. I see you don't believe She swung round and stared. A low buzzing sound came. Miss me, but you will. No harm is And then she swung round and Our classified section may stared in the opposite direction, of special interest to you to

APPROVED PRAYER BOOK

Archbishop Lang of Cant of the convocations of both 6 terbury and York ecclesiastic provinces by sanctioning the the Church of England, reject

Her startled eyes swept the gr spaces. She must have been a takn. She thought some one h spoken, but her overwroun nerves and excited imaginat must have deceived her, for the was no one in sight. "I am Doctor Moffett. I very pleased to see you."

ued assaults on her nerves w steadied her nerves. It was weird by far than to hear voice and be able to see no on

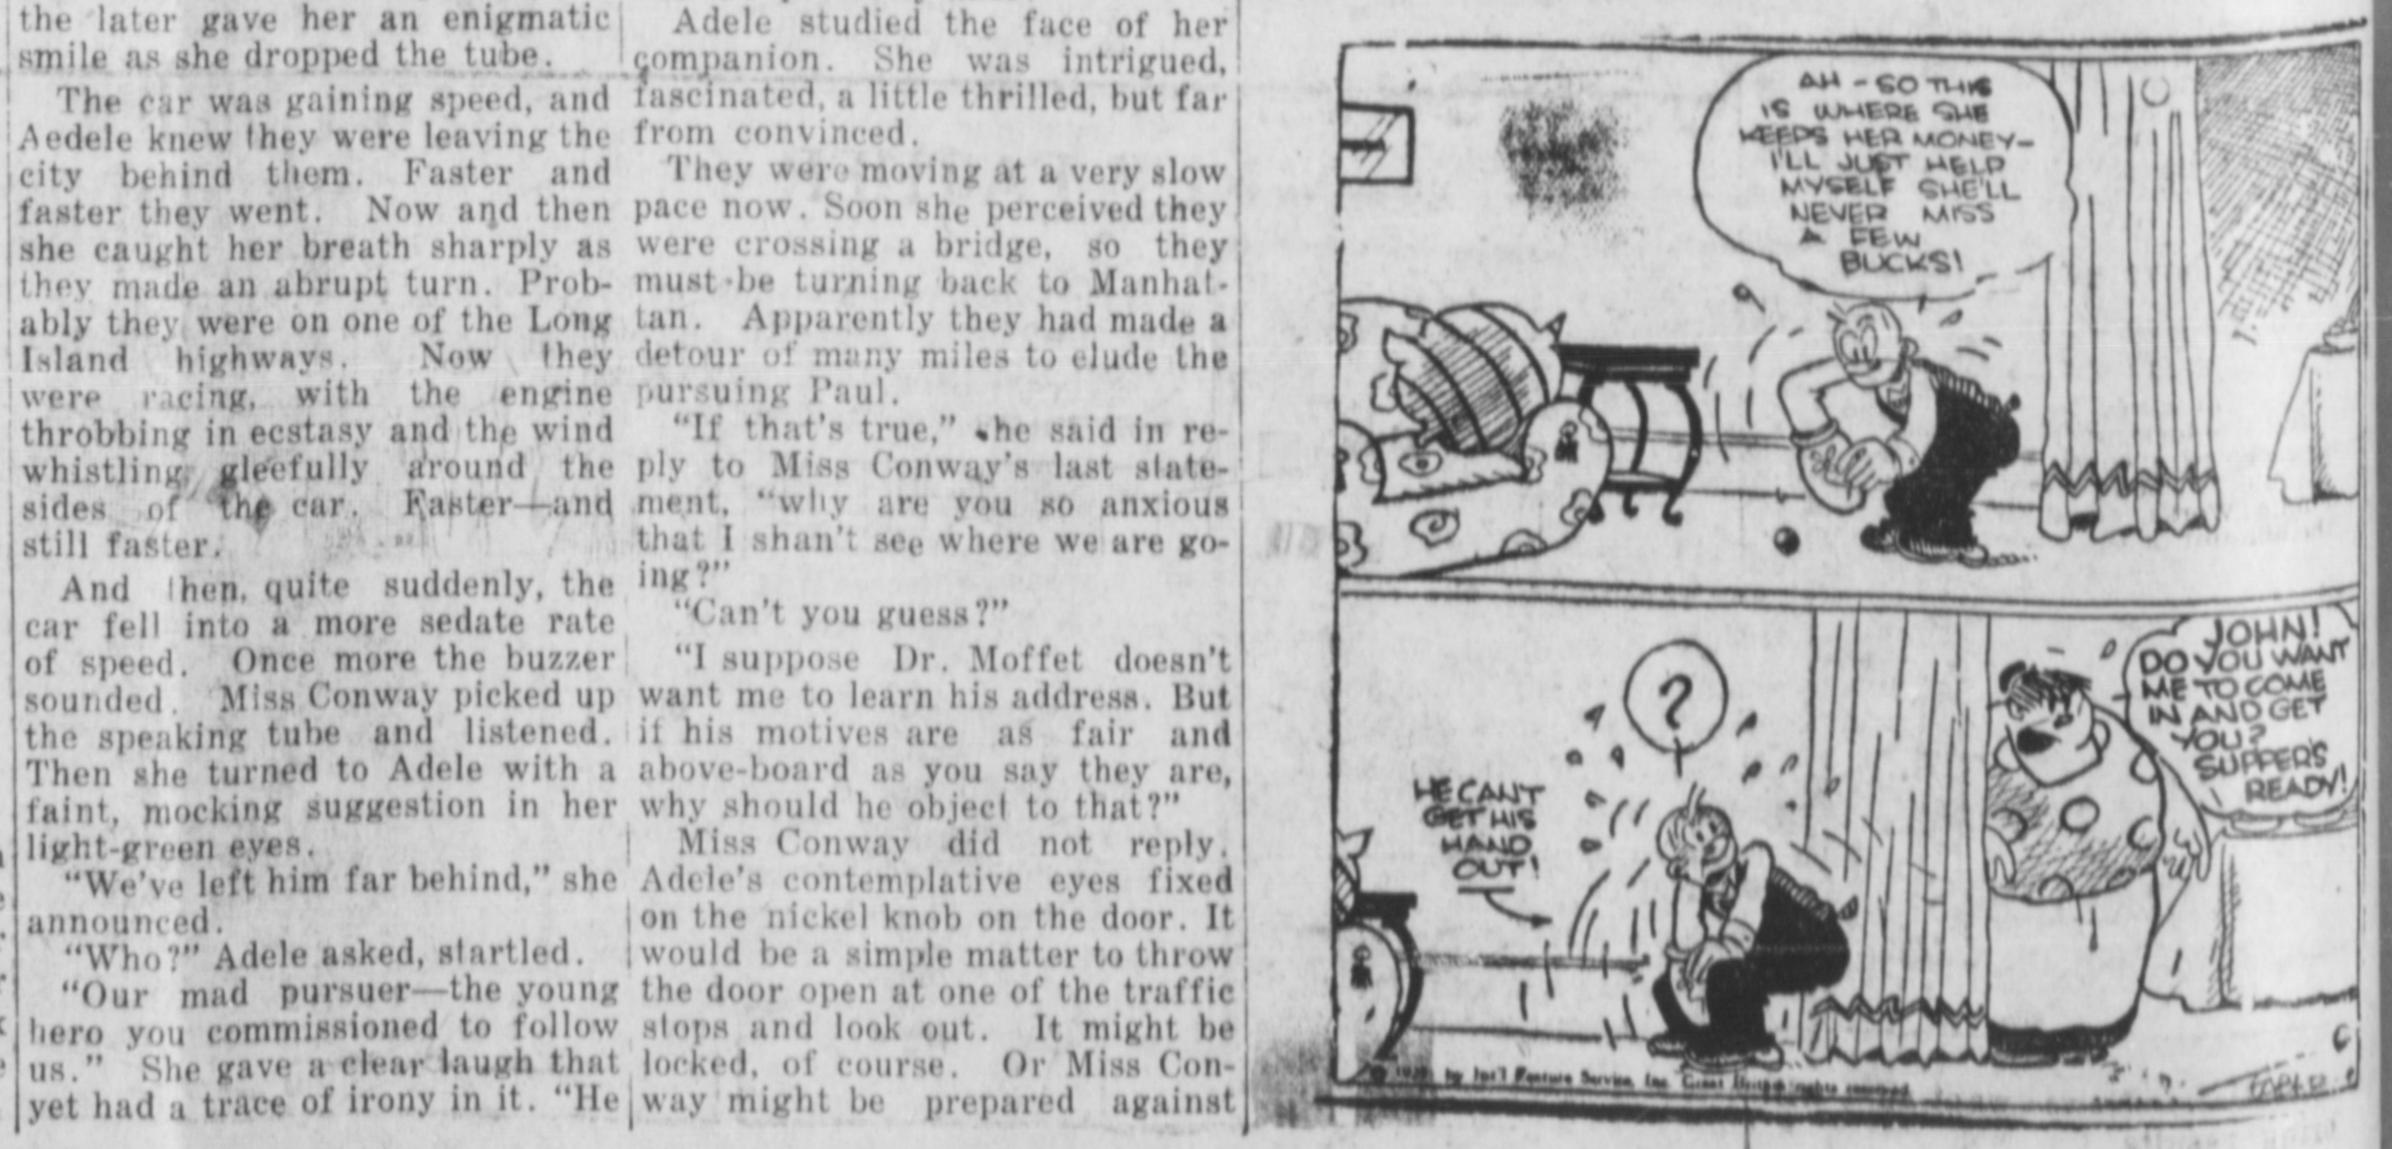

The thread of her thoughts, About half a dozen paces in face she could not see.

(Continued Tomorrow)

USE OF WATER POWER

"How do you do, Miss Castle?" 1,000 of population.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS