Just what to do with one lone tender for the construction of cement sidewalks seemed to puzzle the members of the city council last night. It was proposed that it should be returned unopened, but the name and address of the tenderer was not on the envelope city council at its meeting last and there was no way of telling night was what to do about the Mrs. S. Pamplin and daughter who it was. Someone suggested that if there was a check inside While a number of bylaws have ert. they would soon find out, as the tenderer would call for it or ask questions.

It seemed to be the opinion that sufficient advertising of the conracts had not been made and also here was a possibility that all the work would not be done this seaon. In any event, the tenderer an get his tender back if he calls on the city clerk.
