C. N. R. steamer Prince John, Capt. William Thomas, arrived in port early yesterday afternoon from the south and after discharging a parcel of lumber at the dry dock, sailed last night for Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands. The vessel will pick up passengers and canned salmon at the islands.

During his stay in the city yesterday afternoon, Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, visited the dry dock, cold storage plant, elevator and other industrial places along the waterfront in all of which he evinced much interest. He was escorted by such prominent members of the Trades & Labor Council as Ald. W. M. Brown, James Black, J. J. Gillis and Frank Derry.

Lieut. Col. Peacock, chief secretary of the Salvation Army for Canada West, will arrive in Prince Rupert from the east on Friday of next week and proceed the next day by the steamer Princess Alice to Petersburg, Alaska, where he will conduct the annual Alaska national congress, also visiting other Alaska points while in the north. On his return from Alaska, Lieut. Col. Peacock will spend several days in the city before proceeding east.

Removal Sale at the Montreal Importers

The Montreal Importers are moving. They are going to open up with a big sale tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in their new premises in the Meeker Block, opposite the Empress Hotel. The building at their present location requires extensive repairs and the workmen will be in on Monday. Rather than put up with the inconvenience and dislocation of business which such extensive alterations necessitate, the Montreal Importers Removal Sale starts with a bang tomorrow (Friday) at their new store.

Just pay a visit to the new store and see the variety and quality of the goods on sale. Everything is of the best procurable. And, remember, the Montreal Importers brought Montreal prices to Prince Rupert. They have done no harm to Prince Rupert, but right along have saved their customers a whole lot of money. On this count alone they deserve your continued support. It will pay you, too, for most people like to save money. Not everybody, but most people.

There will be a big ad in a day or two giving some of the bargain prices prevailing at this Removal Sale. If you can't get down town before that, watch for it, but don't wait for it unless you have to. Pay a visit to the new store and get your supplies while the range of sizes in everything is still completed. There is a great stock of everything for men's wear—overalls, underwear, shirts, and everything else. And all of the best quality possible to buy.

This sale starts tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and everything is not only at Montreal prices, but at Montreal Sale Prices.—Adv.

A congregation social will be held in St. Andrew's Cathedral Hall on Friday at 8 p.m. Motion pictures of the work in the Diocese will form part of the program. Admission free. (237)

Ewart Lyne will give an organ recital at St. Andrew's Cathedral on Sunday next, October 13 at 9 p.m. This will be the last opportunity of hearing Mr. Lyne on the organ, as he is leaving here very soon. A very fine program is arranged and the Cathedral Choir will assist. Do not miss this treat. (238)

Union freighter Chilliwack, Capt. W. W. Mounce, arrived in port about noon yesterday from Stewart where she discharged freight and after unloading lumber for Albert & McCaffery and John Currie & Sons, proceeded during the night to the Skeena River to load canned salmon. The vessel is expected in port this afternoon southbound.

The monthly meeting of the school board was held Wednesday evening in the city council chamber, about two hours being taken up by the business on the agenda. Those present: Thomas McMeekin, chairman; Mrs. T. M. Spencer, William Gilchrist, James H. Thomson and W. J. E. Barrie, trustees; J. O. Williamson, secretary; D. H.

Hartness, principal of King Edward High School; Miss E. A. Mercer, principal of Booth Memorial School; Miss Olive McArthur, principal of Seal Cove School, and Miss Jessie Moffatt, Westview School.

Correspondence between the school board and the city council in the matter of the suggestion that a sidewalk be built on Sixth Avenue East between McBride Street and Seal Cove Circle was filed at Wednesday's school board meeting. The council, as a result of the correspondence, decided at its last meeting to introduce a by-law closing the avenue to vehicular traffic at certain hours each school day.
