Man in the Moon

There is a tribe of monkeys that sit in trees and throw cocoanuts and sticks at those below. They consider themselves intellectuals.

Talking about those Aberdeen jokes, I heard of a Scotsman who after many years of silence decided to take advantage of the reduction in postage to write to his folks in Aberdeen and then he slept on it and decided the rate might yet be reduced to one cent.

Possibly you did not hear of the Prince Rupert man who had a night out and then after a long, long sleep got up, drank his bath and returned for another sleep.

Jake came down town this morning after being laid up since the first of the month. He says all the bills are in now and he's safe for another three weeks.

A Salvation Army lassie included a hobo to go to one of their meetings and heard the scriptures read where it says: "Wives obey your husbands in all things." He then went on another bat for he said so far as he could see nobody listened to that kind of scripture.

There is no change in the situation as affects the dispute between fishermen and the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage on the matter on share in fishing on company boats. Meantime, the amount of fish coming into the Cold Storage plant is greatly reduced.

The Prince Rupert Musical Society held an "at home" for its members in the K. of P. Hall last night. Cards and dancing were enjoyed and there was also a musical program.

D. G. Stewart was reelected president of the board of directors on the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association last night. W. E. Williams is vice-president and W. M. Wright, managing secretary.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

THERE'S A SPLASH . . . the placid waters of the crystal pool take life as the pebble disappears. First a circle, then two, then six, then twelve, as if by magic the ripples race over the surface of the pool to its furthermost edges.

The stone that stirred the pool to life was one of your dollar bills, the pool is British Columbia . . . B.C. with its industries and natural resources, you, me, and everyone. The ripples are beneficial disturbances set up by your dollar . . . all the elements of B.C. industry responding to replace that commodity purchased by your dollar.

What is the moral of the stone in the pool?

Every dollar you spend for B.C. products helps sustain B.C. labour and all its dependent sources of production and distribution. Your own prosperity is dependent on your purchasing interest in those articles manufactured for you by your fellow men and women. Every man employed earns wages, spends wages, and keeps others employed. Demand the B.C. product! It is an expression of faith in your local industries and pride in the products of your Homeland.
