Winston Churchill and Amery Arrive and Are Interviewed at Quebec

Amery Thinks Free Trade Within the Empire Impossible; Churchill Gives Opinion of Labor Government

QUEBEC, Aug. 10.—Empire free trade is an ideal but it is quite impracticable in the opinion of Rt. Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, who arrived on the Empress of Australia yesterday en route to the Rockies. "I am absolutely in favor of closer commercial relations among constituent parts of the Empire," Mr. Amery said. "Nevertheless, I feel that the slogan of free trade will not accomplish the purpose desired."

Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill also arrived. He said: "So long as the Labor Government refrains from doing those things which they promised to do, there will be no objection to their holding office, but they must forget all the silly nonsense they have been talking for the past several years."

Mr. Churchill would not comment on Mr. Snowden's attitude at the reparations conference, but made it clear that Mr. Snowden's stand had his own support. Apportionments under the former Dawes plan had been satisfactory, but those now projected were totally inadequate, he said.

GIANTS BEAT CINCINNATI

Chicago Got Twelve Hits Against St. Louis but the Latter Won

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The home coming Giants won when Fitzsimmons held the Reds to four hits.

Pittsburgh swept through a two-game series with St. Louis and today got the two, winning in the eighth.

Chicago raked five Philadelphia pitchers for thirteen hits. Bush yielded five runs in the second but held the Phillies thereafter to but one. It was his sixteenth victory.

There was only one game in the American League yesterday where the Sox hit Crowder twelve times but wasted them and St. Louis won the third game of the series. St. Louis got only ten hits.

Scores for the day follow:

National League

Cincinnati 1, New York 7.

Chicago 12, Philadelphia 6.

St. Louis 6, Pittsburgh 7.

American League

St. Louis 9, Chicago 4.

PRESS BEHIND MR. SNOWDEN

Chancellor of the Exchequer Backed in Britain, Opposed in France

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The British press and public appear to be squarely behind Right Hon. Philip Snowden in the stand he has taken at The Hague, but it is fully recognized how serious the position may become.

The Saturday Review says: "Mr. Snowden will certainly have the backing of the government and the country. What is more, he will need it."

PARIS, Aug. 10.—The French press in general went at Philip Snowden hammer and tongs yesterday, taking the position that if The Hague conference ends in failure, it will be his fault.

SNOWDEN LEAVING HAGUE CONFERENCE WAS PURE NONSENSE

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, replying to the query of the London Daily Mail, said the report that he would leave the Hague conference Monday unless he got satisfaction was "pure nonsense."

SEATTLE, Aug. 10.—The population of this city has increased from 506,000 to 520,000 during the last year, official figures state.

Snowden Tells Conference of Nations at Hague They Must Consider His Resolution Soon

British Chancellor Does Not Propose to Spend Rest of His Days at Dutch Capital, He Says to Committee

THE HAGUE, Aug. 10.—A slight recovery of confidence was experienced today when a general discussion of the Young plan of reparations payments was resumed without incident until it was again upset at the end of today's vital meeting of the financial committee by the intervention of Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, British chancellor of the exchequer, who declared he had placed his case before the conference and could not wait much longer for a decision. "I don't wish to spend the rest of my days at The Hague. We must come to grips on the question at issue. My resolution is still before the committee and I cannot permit delay in action upon it much longer," he said.

Crisis Is Averted

THE HAGUE, Aug. 10.—The crisis in the conference of governments to make the Young plan effective was averted when the conference financial committee adjourned until Monday without discussion of the resolution of Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden demanding revision of the plan. Later Premier Jasper and Foreign Minister Ymans of Belgium called on Mr. Snowden.

Endurance Fliers Descend After Breaking Record

Above, inset, are the two aviators who are chiefly responsible for the St. Louis endurance fliers breaking all records to stay aloft for more than 17 days. They are Major Wassal, left, and Shorty Chaffe, right, who comprised the crew of the plane which skillfully transferred more than 3,200 gallons of gasoline to the endurance plane, as well as food and other materials. The two waving their arms are Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, parents of "Red" Jackson, one of the endurance fliers. They are waving encouragement to the aviators shortly before they decided to come down.
