

Man in the Moon

There are plenty of way of enjoying yourself. And many of these are new. But there's nothing like the old, old games.

There's one thing about life in Prince Rupert, you do not have to swelter in a crowded street car or get scared to death in a traffic jam.

Some of our great men have passed through several transportation phases. They first learned to walk and practiced on the railway ties; they next learned to ride in a train, finally emerging in the observation room; then in order to save time they drove their own cars; next they will have a runabout airplane so they may look down on the rest of mankind.

That gambling is inherent in the human race is evident from the number of marriages one hears of.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

July 15, 1919

The local Trades & Labor Council is to be reorganized under the Trades Congress of Canada.

An auction of city lots will be held next month. Returned men will be given the preference in the bidding.

Mayor McClymont will communicate with Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, seeking financial assistance from the provincial government in connection with the new public school it is planned to build on Acropolis Hill.

COLUMBIA ICE-FIELD

The Columbia ice-field in the Canadian Rockies is one of the most remarkable alpine features of that great region. It is situated in Jasper National Park, Alta., and covers an approximate area of 10 square miles.
