Sergeant W. J. Service, chief of the Smithers district detachment of the provincial police, arrived in the city from the interior on yesterday afternoon's train on official duties. He will return to Smithers tomorrow morning.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. A. Johnstone, arrived in port at 9 o'clock this morning from Vancouver and waypoints and sailed about an hour later for Port Simpson and Wales Island whence she will return here this evening and sail south at midnight.

ROADS FIRST INTEREST OF PEOPLE NORTHERN AND CENTRAL B.C. URGES CONTRIBUTOR TO DAILY NEWS CONTEST.

haven't got the guts to get even a dirt road for yourselves.

Your merchants cannot afford to employ your sons and daughters in their stores and offices. They haven't got the business with the surrounding communities for the lack of a road. This lack of turnover forces them to charge such prices as encourages mail order business to the nth degree. And you, Mr. Editor do not get the advertising of the Prince Rupert merchants roads that any prairie village weekly gets. More shame to the Prince Rupert merchants. They do not realize the value of a good daily newspaper. All they deserve is a weekly edition. Why don't you try it on them? Then you'd hear them holler!

To conclude. Get an automobile road to link up Prince Rupert with the surrounding communities and the rest of Canada and "all these things shall be added unto you."

(This contribution is not eligible for a prize because it is too long.—Ed.)

"IT" GIRL IS A THRILLER IN ELINOR GLYN'S NEW STORY

Clara Bow is Better Than Ever In the Dashing, Romantic Comedy "Three Week Ends"

Why spend "Three Weeks" learning about love when "Three Week Ends" will teach "it" in one evening? Clara Bow's new Elinor Glyn picture which opens at the Capitol Theatre tonight is the latest thing from the Paramount studio, and is another sensation.

"Three Week Ends" is the new starring vehicle for the "mapcap of the screen," Clara Bow. It was written by the famous novelist, Elinor Glyn, and directed by Clarence Badger, noted in the screen world for his deft directorial touches in comedy productions.

This "big three" of filmdom was brought together again by Paramount after the great public acclaim given their pictures, "It" and "Red Hair."

The story of "Three Week Ends" concerns the trials and tribulations of a poor but attractive girl of a cabaret chorus whose entertainment is contributed by the playboys of Broadway during the week ends. It contains many colorful sequences of night club life and also interesting parties in and around the country places of the wealthy.

Two handsome men have important supporting roles in this Elinor Glyn story. They are Neil Hamilton and Harrison Ford, both well known for many stellar performances. Julia Swayne Gordon and Guy Oliver are in the cast in catchy parts and Edveth Chapman, beloved screen mother, gives an excellent performance as Clara's "ma."

BIG BILL OF ENTERTAINMENT AT CAPITOL

The week-end bill of entertainment at the Capitol is an unusually attractive one and promises to greatly please everyone.

At the Saturday matinee, the semi-finals of the B. C. Oratorical contest will take place with Robert Irvine, Prince Rupert vs. Arthur Button, Powell River, and this should be one of the most interesting events of its kind heard for some time.

Then as well for the kiddies there is an exceptionally good "Big Boy" comedy, to say nothing of the final episode of "Tarzan" which has pleased the younger folks so much during the past several weeks.

Clara Bow in "Three Week Ends" will take care of the grown-ups and Jack de Jausserand in violin solos, will complete a bill that should not be missed.

MISSION AT BAPTIST CHURCH IS CONCLUDED

Rev. Dr. F. W. Dufoe Returns to Chilliwack After Spending Ten Days Here

Rev. Dr. Frederick W. Dufoe of Chilliwack, after conducting a ten-day evangelical mission in First Baptist Church here, sailed by the Prince George last night on his return south. The concluding meeting last evening was largely attended and Dr. Dufoe gave an impressive address on the subject, "Almost Persuaded." At the close, Rev. W. F. Price, the minister, expressed the gratitude of the local congregation to Dr. Dufoe for his visit and work.
